56 BROOKE (Ralph, Yorke Herault at Armes), A Discoverie of certaine errours published in print in the much commended Britannia 1594. Very preiudiciall to the discentes and successions of the auncient Nobilitie of this Realme. Without place or date, [London, 1596]. Sm. 4to, FIRST EDITION, half calf neat, £1 5s. Ellis' Library Cat. N. 104 March 1904. 29 N 13 3 14

The author took umbrage at the appointment of William Camden as Clarenceux King-at-arms, as the latter was not a professional herald, and in this book made a most bitter attack upon him. At the end he printed in support of his contentions, John Leyland's "New yeeres Gyft," and a piece of verse entitled "Leylands supposed Ghost."

TO THE HIGH AND

Mighty Prince, IAMES, King of Great-Britaine, France, and Ireland, &c.

Most Gracious Soueraigne:

ALthough I thinke not the meane fruite of my Studies worthy so great a Patron as your selfe, and therefore dedicate the same onely to those Honourable Lords your Commissioners for the Office of Earle Marshall of England, vnto whose Censure and Office, all matters of Honour and Armes belongeth, and are committed: (yet after fiftie yeeres labour and experience, Now treating of Nobility, Honour, and Armes, which are deriued from the fountaine of Royall authoritie of Kings and Princes, and being heereunto partly led by vertue of my Office of Herauld, wherein I haue serued your MAIESTY and the late Queene ELIZABETH of famous memory, these forty yeeres) I held it my bounden dutie, thus much at least (by humble Præface) to intimate vnto your HIGHNESSE, that heere I discouer and reforme many things heeretofore grossely mistaken, and abused by ignorant persons; who venturing beyond their owne element and skill to write of this subiect, haue shewed themselues more bold and busie, then skilfull in Heraldry, and haue thereby so troubled the cleare fountain of Honorable Titles and Descents, flowing from your MAIESTY and former Princes, that true Nobilitie is greatly blemished and obscured thereby. For the amendment and preuention of these and the like abuses hereafter, I most humbly pray a reformation, and that vpstarts and Mountebankes within this our profeſſion, may be prohibited to make their profite and credite, vpon the diſcredite and impouerifhing of your MAIESTIES poore ſeruants the Officers of Armes, who labor daily, and ſpend both their bodies and ſubſtance, faithfully to preſerue and keepe in Regiſter, the Deſcents and Achiuements of the Nobilitie and Gentrie of this Kingdome, with their Noble and worthie Actes, Marriages, Iſſues, and Armes, which is no eaſie thing now to do. And much more harder it will be heereafter, if theſe buſie bodies (catching by chance the imperfect Notes of Heraulds deceaſed) ſhall be ſuffered to publiſh in print their owne inuentions, as true and infallible verities, whereby in time to come, it will be hard to diſtinguiſh light from darkneſſe, and truth from falſhood, vnleſſe your Princely care and feeling heereof, may bee ſignified vnto the Lords Commiſſioners to redreſſe the ſame.

So moſt humbly praying your MAIESTIES pardon, I beſeech the King of Kings, long to continue and proſper your happy Reigne ouer vs.

Your Maieſties moſt humble
deuoted Subiect and Seruant,

RAPHE BROOKE,

Yorke Herauld.

TO THE RIGHT HONOVrable, Edward Earle of Worceſter, Lord Keeper of the Priuy Seale; Lodowicke Duke of Lenox, Lord Steward of his MAIESTIES Houſhold; George Marqueſſe of Buckingham, Maiſter of his Maieſties Horſe; Charles Earle of Nottingham, High Admirall of England; William Earle of Penbroke, Lord Chamberlaine of his Maieſties Houſhold; Thomas Earle of Arundell, and Thomas Earle of Suffolke, Commiſſioners for the Office of Earle Marſhall of England: Priuy Counſellors to IAMES King of GREAT-BRITAINE, and Knights of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter.

Right Honourable,

THE meane Artificer that found fault with Apelles, ſo long as hee preſumed not vltra Crepidam, was heard and allowed ſo well; that the moſt Excellent Painter thereupon amended his picture: and yet the ſame being the onely one (perhaps) of ſome ordinary perſon, well or ill done, could greatly hurt no man. But great hurt and preiudice (my Lords) may enſue vnto many, yea, euen vnto your ſelues and your poſterity (ioyned as they are, and may bee, with other Noble families) by the miſhapen, ill wrought, and deformed Pictures of falſe Pedigrees and Deſcents of Engliſh Nobilitie, which ſome buſie Antiquaries (as they would be called) of late intruding, haue publiſhed in Print. It were therefore to be wiſhed, that Bookes of that kinde ſhould bee examined by experienced Officers, and therewith haue your Lordſhips allowance, before they paſſe the Preſſe. But ſithence hitherto it hath bin neglected and lightly paſſed ouer, as a matter of ſmal importance, and of leſſe profit; I truſt I ſhall with your Honourable fauours, doe my Prince and Countrey the ſeruice, yea my ſelfe and fellow-Officers of Armes, the right; preſuming not vltra Caduceum, to examine the writings of theſe intruders, and reforme their errors: whereof to giue you a taſte.

Iohn Stow (in the Vinnet of his Annales, printed 1592.) hath made, Richard Duke of Yorke, and Anne Mortimer, to be Father and mother to K. Edward 4. in doing whereof, he hath made the ſaid Richard to marry his owne mother. M. Milles (page 543.) ſaith, that Charls Brandon Duke of Suffolk, by Margaret Lady Mortimer his ſecond wife, had iſſue, Henry Earle of Lincolne, Frances wife to Henry Grey, Marqueſſe Dorſet, and Eleanor maried to Henry Clifford Earle of Cumberland; whereas the ſaid Henry, Frances, & Eleanor, were the children of Charles Brandon, by Mary the French Queen. M. Martin, in his Hiſtory of the Kings of England (page 60.) hath, That King Iohn of England, had iſſue foure ſons; Henry, who was after King; Richard elect King of the Romanes; manes; William of Valence Earle of Penbroke, and Guydo Diſnay: which William and Guydo, were the ſons of Hugh le Brun, Earle of the Marches of Aquitain in France, and not King Iohns.

What a confuſion and trouble may this breed in after Ages; both for Deſcents, Armes, and true Kindred: as alſo ſuits of Law, Duelloes, and Challenges; Nay (my good Lords) were not the Crowne ſo well eſtabliſhed in the King, and his Royall iſſue (which God long preſerue:) what a Way is heere opened (if it bee not ſtopt in time) for vaine Titularies and Competitors to preſume on? So dangerous a thing it is, for the vnskilfull to deale in matters of Herauldry, that are not ſworne & profeſſed Officers thereto. Had I bene as forward to ſet out mine owne labors, as thoſe haue bene to vent the imperfect Collections of others, I might (I thinke) haue written of this ſubiect before ſome of them were borne: for any time theſe fiftie yeeres, it hath bene my ſtudie. And when I had almoſt finiſhed a true Catalogue of the Kings, Princes, and Nobles of this Realme, that haue bin ſince the Normane Conqueſt, with intent to leaue it to poſterity only in Writing, and in the Office and Colledge of Armes (which indeede ought to be the Store-houſe of all honourable Actions and Deſignes) I ſtaide awhile at ſight of the blinde and miſhapen whelps, which the ouer-haſty brought forth. But now, as well for the Reaſons afore-ſhewed, as alſo at the inſtance of ſome of my Honourable Friends; I haue thought meete (hauing firſt made his Maieſty acquainted therewith) to publiſh and preſent the ſame vnto your Lordſhips; wherein beſides the errors aboue cited, your Honours ſhall haue heere in the next leafe following, many others: yea, ſuch as cry out to bee reformed, by your authority; which I truſt of your owne Noble care and Honourable diſpoſitions you will ſo execute, that henceforth the Nobility and Gentry of this Land, together with the Officers of Armes, may hold their owne better: And that the vndigeſted Notes of dead Heraulds and Painters bookes (to the preiudice of the liuing) be not publiſhed by any. And that in theſe matters of Armes and Deſcents, none but ſworn Officers of Armes may be ſuffered to meddle; yea, & that amongſt our ſelues, none may be ſuffered to giue the ancient Enſignes and tokens of Honour and Armes, vnto ſuch as haue neither Deſcent nor Deſerts to commend nor enable them thereunto.

Theſe and the like abuſes done to our Profeſſion, are enough (my good Lords) for me to point at by way of Epiſtle, and fully ſufficient (I hope) to draw your Honourable cares for amendment thereof. But many more great errors haue I likewiſe diſcouered, yea (almoſt) in euery page of my Booke: which Booke (with my poore endeuours) I humbly offer vnto your moſt Noble protection and Patronage: And if your Honors ſhall be pleaſed, fauourably to cenſure and accept the ſame (as earneſtly I wiſh and pray you) I ſhall thinke my paines heerein well beſtowed, & take encouragement to perfect and finiſh a farre greater worke begun in this my Profeſſion: otherwiſe to do you the beſt ſeruice I am able.

Your Lordſhips deuoted in all duty and ſeruice,

RAPHE BROOKE,
Yorke Herauld.

A CATALOGVE OF THE Kings of England, since the Norman Conqueſt, their Armes, Wiues, and Children.

WIlliam, ſur-named the Conqueror (couſin vnto King Edward the Confeſſor, in the third and fourth degree) baſe ſonne of Robert the ſixt Duke of Normandy, begotten of Arlet his Concubine, daughter of a Skinner and Burgeſſe of the Citty of Faloys; who hauing ouerthrowne and ſlaine King Herauld in battell, was vpon Chriſtmas day, in the yeare of Chriſt, 1066. crowned King of England, (not by Stigand Archbiſhop of Canterbury, becauſe he was a very proud and leud liuer) but by Aldred Archbiſhop of Yorke; at which time, the ſaide William cauſed both the Biſhops and Noblemen of the Realme, to ſweare fealty to him before S. Peters Altar at Weſtminſter. He married Mauld, daughter of Baldwyn the fift Earle of Flanders (ſur-named the Gentle) who dyed the ſecond day of Nouember, 1083. and was buried at Cane in Normandy, in S. Maries Church: and William Conqueror her husband dyed at Roan, on Thurſday, the 8. of the Ides of September, 1087. the 51. of his Dukedome of Normandy, the 21. of his Kingdome of England, and of his age the 74. and was buried at Cane in S. Stephens Church, which he before had built. He had iſſue, 4. ſonnes, and 6. daughters.

For the authority of the Armes of the Kings of England, from William Conquerors time, to king Richard the firſt, I finde none of any great credite, but what hath beene vſed by traditions, that will I ſet downe as I finde them.

William Conqueror (as it is ſaide) vſed the Armes of Rollo the Dane, and firſt Duke of Normandy, which he bare as belonging to the Dukedome of Normandy: Gueules, deux Lyons paſſant gardant, d'or.

A Catalogue of the King Henry the first.

HEnry, the fourth and youngeſt ſonne of William Conquerour, was borne at Selby in Yorkſhire, 1070. and for his learning was cald Beauclark; he was brought vp in the ſtudy of the liberall Arts at Cambridge, vnder Henry Newborough Earle of Warwicke. He began his Reigne the ſecond of Auguſt, and was crowned at Weſtminſter, by Maurice Biſhop of London, (Anſelme Biſhop of Canterbury beeing then in exile) the fift of Auguſt, 1100. He was ſtrong and mighty of body, high of ſtature, amiable of countenance, blacke haired, faire eyes, broad breaſted, well in fleſh, full of merry conceits, excellent in wit, eloquent in ſpeech, and fortunate in battaile; and for theſe, he had three notable vices, couetouſneſſe, cruelty and letchery. Hee maried two wiues, the firſt was Mauld, daughter of Malcolme Canmoir, King of Scotland, (otherwiſe Malcolme with the great head) ſhe was married to him at London, in the yeare 1100. and liued with him 17. yeares, and dyed in May, in the yeare 1118. & was buried at S. Peters church at Weſtminſter, leauing iſſue one ſonne and a daughter; ſhe built a houſe for leapers neere London, called S. Gyles in the field.

His ſecond wife was Adelicia, daughter of Godfrey, firſt Duke of Louaine, and ſiſter of another Godfrey, and Iocelyn of Louaine: She was married the 29. of Ianuary, 1121. and continued his wife fifteene yeares, but had no iſſue by him. She was after married to William de Albeney Earle of Arundell, by whom ſhe had iſſue, William the ſecond Earle of Arundell, Godfrey, and Ioane married to Iohn Earle of Angi. This Henry dyed of a ſurfet at Denniſes, in the Forreſt of Lions in Normandy, the firſt day of December, in the yeare 1135. being about 67. yeares olde, hauing reigned King 35. yeares and foure Moneths.

In this Henry, ended the line of the heyres male of the Norman Kings, hauing reigned heere 69. yeares, after whom came the French, by marrying the heyre generall. Les armoiries de ſon peré.

His Iſſue.

William, ſonne of King Henry and Queene Mauld his firſt wife, was borne in the yeare 1102. and being 14. yeares old, the Nobility did him homage, & three yeares yeares after, he married Mary, the daughter of Foulk Earle of Aniou; and the ſame yeare was made Duke of Normandy, for which he did homage to King Lewis the Groſſe of France, and after was drowned, comming out of Normandy into England, the 26. of Nouember, 1120. beeing then eighteene yeares of age, leauing no iſſue of his body.

Mauld, the only daughter of king Henry the firſt, by Mauld his firſt wife, was borne the fourth yeare of her Fathers Reigne, and was married to the Emperour Henry the fourth, for his ſecond wife, being but ſeuen yeares olde at her eſpouſing, and married and crowned at eleuen, at Mentz in Germany, in the yeare 1114. with whom ſhe continued twelue yeares, and out-liued him, but had no iſſue by him. After ſhe married Geffrey Plantagenet, Earle of Aniou, ſon of Foulke king of Ieruſalem, in the yeare 1127 and had iſſue Henry, after King of England; Geffrey, Earle of Nantes in Britaine; and William, Earle of Poytou: She was his wife 23. yeares, and a widdow 17. yeares, and after dyed in Roan, 1167. and was buried at Bec Abbey in Normandy.

His Iſſue by Concubines.

Robert (of ſome Writers called the Conſull of Gloceſter) baſe ſonne of King Henry the firſt, begotten of Neſt, the daughter of Rice ap Teuder, the great Prince of South-Wales, who was after married to Girald de Windſore, Conſtable of the Caſtle of Penbroke. This Robert married Mabell, daughter of Robert Fitz-Hamond, Lord of Glamorgan, by whom he had iſſue, William Earle of Gloceſter, and others, as in the Title of Earles of Gloceſter is more at large.

Reginald, baſe ſonne of King Henry the firſt, begotten of the daughter of Robert Corbet, of Alenceſter in Warwickſhire, had iſſue, foure daughters his heires, as in the Title of Earles of Cornwall, is more at large.

Henry, ſlaine in Angleſey in North-Wales, without iſſue.

Richard, Mary and Margaret were drowned, with their brother William, comming out of Normandy into England, 1120.

Elizabeth, baſe daughter of King Henry the firſt, (begotten of Elizabeth, ſiſter of Walleran Earle of Meulan, and Robert Boſſue Earle of Leiceſter) was wife to Gilbert Strongbow Earle of Penbroke, and Mother to Richard Earle of Penbroke, as in the Title of Earles of Penbroke.

Iulian, Counteſſe of Paſſy.

A Catalogue of the King Stephen.

STephen, Earle of Mortaine and Bolloigne in Picardy, third Son of Stephen, Earle of Bloys and Champaigne, begotten of Alice, the third daughter of William the Conqueror and Queene Mauld; was crowned King on S. Stephens day, by William Arch-Biſhop of Canterbury, at Weſtminſter 1135, by the plotting of his younger Brother Henry, who was Biſhop of Wincheſter, and Abbot of Gloſtenbury, and who had drawn vnto his Faction, William Archbiſhop of Canterbury, the very firſt man that before had ſworne fealty to Queene Mauld the Empreſſe, and to ſtir vp the Nobility of the Realme againſt the ſaide Mauld, proteſting, that it was baſeneſſe for ſo many great Peeres to be ſubiect vnto a womã. And further, to helpe forward this miſchieuous plot, (another of the ſame brood) Roger Biſhop of Salisbury, the late Kings Treaſurer, proteſted, that the Nobility were free from the Oath they had before made to Mauld the Empreſſe, by reaſon that ſhe had married Geffrey Plantagenet, without their priuity and conſent, (as though free Princes could not marry without the conſent of their Subiects) which falſe inſtigations of theſe wicked Biſhops, made the Nobility to forſwear themſelues, in ſwearing fealty vnto King Stephen a Vſurper. And theſe were the fruites of theſe honeſt Churchmen, who were the cauſe, and loſſe alſo of many a mans life. This Stephen married Mauld, daughter of Euſtace Earle of Bolloigne, Brother of Godfrey and Baldwyn kings of Ieruſalem, by whom he had iſſue, three ſonnes and two daughters: he reigned eighteene yeares, ten moneths, and odde dayes, and dyed at Douer the 25. of October, 1154. being 49 yeares olde, and was buried at Feuerſham in Kent, where his Queene and Sonne were alſo buried. She dyed at Heningham Caſtle in Eſſex, the third of May, 1151. It is ſaid, that King Stephen entring this Realme, the ſigne being in Sagittarius, and obtayning great victory by the helpe of his Archers, aſſumed the Sagitarius for his Arms.

Et portoit, gueulles a Sagitarius d'or.

Their Iſſue.

Baldwyn the eldeſt ſonne, dyed in his infancy, and was buried at London, in the Priory of the Trinity within Aldgate, founded by Queen Mauld, wife to king Henry the firſt.

Euſtace ſecond ſonne, was by his Father created Earle of Bolloigne, and married ried Constance, sister of Lewis the seuenth King of France, and dyed without issue the tenth of August, 1152. and was buried at Feuersham.

William the third sonne, married Isabell, daughter and heyre of William the third Earle Warren and Surrey, in whose right he was Earle Warren and Surrey, Lord of Norwich and Peuensey, Earle Mortaine, and Lord of the Egle in Normandy. He dyed in his returne from Tholouz, in the yeare, 1160.

Mauld, the eldest daughter of King Stephen, dyed young, and was buried at London, in the Priory of the Trinity within Aldgate, cald Christ-Church, now the Dukes place.

Mary, second daughter of King Stephen, was Abbesse of the Nunnery at Rumsey in Hampshire; after she forsooke her habite, and married Mathew, Brother of Philip Earle of Flanders, who (in her right) was Earle of Bolloigne, and had issue, Ida and Mauld.

King Henry the second,

HEnry, the second of that Name, (sur-named Short-mantle, borne in France) Son of Geffrey Plantagenet, Earle of Anou, and Mauld the Empresse, daughter of King Henry the first; began his Reigne ouer this Realme of England, the twentieth day of October, 1154. His first comming was to Winchester, where the Nobles of the Realme came vnto him, of whō he tooke homage and fealty: then comming to London, he was crowned at Westminster by Theobald, Archbishop of Canterbury, the 17. of December, 1154. being then 23. yeares of age. He chose to be of his Counsell, the graueſt and wiſeſt he could finde, & such as were best experienced in the Lawes of the Land. He expelled by publike Proclamation, all strangers out of the Land, who had swarmed into England, in the time of variance betweene king Stephen and him: amongst whom, William of Ypers Earle of Kent, was also compelled to be gone; taking into his hands all such lands and possessions as perrained to the Crowne, which had bene before alienated and made away to any person of what degree soeuer. From Hugh Mortimer, he took the Castles of Clebery, Wigmore & Bridgnorth. He maried Elianor, daughter and sole heyre of William Duke of Aquitaine, Earle of Poictiers and Tholouze, the fift of that name, (begotten of the daughter of Raymond, Earle of Tholouſe.) This Elianors Title, was the cheefe cauſe of thoſe bloody warres betwixt England and France; yea, and the Bellowes that blew that vnnaturall diſcord, betwixt the Father and his Sonnes. She ouer-liued her husband, and did ſee three of her ſonnes to be kings; and dyed the third of the Kalends of Aprill, 1204. This Henry dyed the 6. day of Iuly, 1189. in the 61. yeare of his age, when he had reigned 34. yeares, 9. moneths, and two daies, and was buried at Founteuerald, in the Dutchy of Alanſon, neere to the Towne of the Egle.

was

Et portoit, gueulles au deux leopard paſſant d'or.

The Iſſue of King Henry the ſecond, and Queene Elianor his Wife.

William eldeſt ſonne, borne in the yeare, 1152, to whom the Nobility ſware fealty at the Caſtle of Wallingford in Berkſhire; he dyed in the yeare 1156, being but fiue yeares olde, and was buried at Reading, by his great Grandfather, King Henry the firſt.

Henry the ſecond ſonne, after the death of William his Brother, was Duke of Normandy, Earle of Aniou and Mayne, and was crowned king in the life time of his Father, the 15. of Iune, 1170. His wife was Margaret, daughter of Lewis the younger, king of France, and was married at Newburgh in Normandy, 1160. and ſhe was after crowned Queene at Wincheſter, 1163. He dyed at Marcell in Touraine, the eleuenth of Iune, 1182. and was buried at Roan.

Richard the third ſonne, was borne at Oxford, 1157. and was ſur-named of the French, Cuer-de-Lyon. He was firſt created earle of Poyctou, & had the whole Dutchy of Aquitaine, for which he did his homage to King Lewis the yonger, of France, 1170. After he fell at variance with his Father, and maintained wars againſt him: but he was afterwards reconciled into his Fathers loue againe, & ſucceeded him in his Kingdome.

Geffrey the fourth ſonne, borne the fift yeare of his Fathers Reigne; he married Conſtance, daughter and heyre of Conan Duke of Britaine, and did his homage for the ſame to his brother Henry, and dyed at Paris, 1186. the 19, of Auguſt, and was buried in our Lady Church there, hauing iſſue, Arthur, Duke of Britaine, borne after his Fathers death; and a daughter named Elianor, which dyed in priſon, in King Henry the thirds time. This Conſtance was alſo married to Randoll Earle of Cheſter.

Philip the fift ſonne, was borne in the fifteenth yeare of his Fathers Reigne, and dyed young, and was buried in S. Paules Church in London.

Iohn the ſixt ſonne, was borne in the yeare 1166. and ſur-named Sanz-terre without Land; becauſe when he was King, hee reſigned his Crowne and Kingdome to the Pope: which Pandulphus his Legate kept (for the ſpace of foure daies) to the Popes vſe. He was created Earle of Mortaigne, and had withall the Earledomes of Cornwall, Glocester, Derby and Lancaſter, the Honours of Wallingford and Nottingham, and laſtly was King.

Mauld,

Mauld the eldeſt daughter, was borne in the third yeare of her Fathers reign, and married Henry, ſur-named the Lyon, Duke of Saxony and Sardinia; ſhe ſuruiued her husband, and dyed in the firſt yeare of King Richard the firſt, and was after buried by her husband in the Church of S. Blaſe at Brunſwick, leauing iſſue, Otho Emperor, Henry Duke of Saxony, and William, and a daughter named Elianor.

Elianor ſecond daughter, borne at Roan, 1162. married Alfonſus the ninth of that name, King of Caſtile in Spaine, and had iſſue, Sancheus that dyed yong, as alſo his brother Ferdinando; Henry King of Caſtile; Blanch Queen of France, wife to Lewis the eight, and Mother of S. Lewis; Berengar married vnto Alphonſus King of Leon, Vrraca Queene of Portingall, and Elianor wife to King Iames King of Arragon.

Ioane the third daughter, borne in the Citty of Angiers in France, 1166. being but eleuen yeares olde, was conueyed to the Citty of Palermo, and there married to William the ſecond King of Cicill, Duke of Apulia, and Prince of Capua, 1177. and was crowned Queene at the ſame place. She had iſſue, a ſonne named Beaumond, who was Duke of Apulia, and dyed young: She was after married to Raymond the fourth of that Name, Earle of Tholouze, and had iſſue Raymond, the laſt Earle of that Houſe or Family; and a daughter married to Berald of Elbeine, Prince of Orange.

Iſſue by his Concubine.

William, ſur-named Longſpee (or Long-Sword) begotten of his Paramore, the Lady Roſamond, daughter of Walter Lord Clifford, married Ela, daughter and heyre of William Fitz-Patricke Earle of Salisbury, and had iſſue, William Longſpee a Baron; Stephen ſecond ſonne; Nicholas Biſhop of Salisbury; and Richard the fourth ſonne, was a Cannon at Bradſtocke: Idona, married to William Beauchampe Baron of Bedford; Ella, firſt married to the Earle of Warwicke, and after to Philip Lord Baſſet; and Iſabell, firſt married to William Lord Veſcy, and after to Walter Lord Clifford, Father of Roger.

King Richard the firſt.

Richard, third ſonne of King Henry the ſecond, was borne at Oxford, in the yeare 1157, who for his inuincible valor, and haughty courage, was ſur-named Cuer-de-Lyon, or the Lyons Heart; and did beare on his Shield or Targe, for his Armes, a Lyon rampant, which was the firſt Armes that euer I haue ſeene borne by any in England. He began his Reigne ouer England, the ſixt day of Iuly, in the yeare of our Lord, 1189. being 35. yeares olde. And vpon the ſolemnizing of his Fathers Funerals, he went to the City of Roan, where, on the twentieth of Iuly after, he was proclaymed Duke of Normandy. In the beginning of his reigne, Pope Innocent ſolicited him with many ſtrong perſwaſions, and promiſes of his bleſſings, to wage warre in his owne perſon againſt the Turkes in the holy Land, and to attempt the winning of Ieruſalem from the Infidels; which iourney he vndertooke, becauſe Fredericke the Emperor, and Philip the ſecond of France, and Leopoldus then Arch-Duke of Auſtria, and others had engaged themſelues, to further thoſe attempts, that their generall meeting ſhould be in Sicilia: and that ſuch wealth & booty as God and good fortune ſhould make them owners of, ſhould be equally ſhared and diuided amongſt them and theirs. King Richard to ſupply his wants, and to furniſh himſelfe with money, he ſolde the Caſtles of Barwick and Rokesbrough to the King of Scots, for ten thouſand pounds; and the Lordſhip and Earledome of Durham, vnto Hugh the proud Biſhop of that See, for a great ſumme of money. He alſo enriched himſelfe by the ſale of ſundry Honours, Lordſhips, Mannors, Offices, Priuiledges, Royalties, and other things; proteſting, that (for the performance of ſo great and honourable a ſeruice) hee was not vnwilling to ſell his Citty of London, if any were able to buy it, rather then he would be chargeable vnto others. His iourney being performed, and hee proclaymed King of Ieruſalem, and had the poſſeſſion thereof, and after making his returne for England; was in great danger of ſhipwracke, where he ſaued his life by ſwimming, neere vnto Hiſtria, which lyeth betweene Aquileia and Venice. And comming to the Territories of Leopold in Auſtria, hee was by him taken priſoner & ſolde to the Emperour Henry the ſixt, for threeſcore thouſand Markes; which Emperour aſſeſſed him to pay for his ranſome, one hundred thouſand pounds; for which, ſecurity being giuen, he was ſet at liberty. Hee was firſt contracted in marriage to Alice, daughter of Lewis the ſeuenth king of France, but with her he neuer kept company, nor had any iſſue.

His

His ſecond wife was Berengaria, daughter of Sanches the fourth, King of Nauarre, who married him at Ciprus, and accompanied him to the holy land. He was ſlaine by Bertram de Gurdonn, with the ſhot out of a Croſſebow, at a Caſtle of the Viſcount of Limoges, called Chalons, which wounding him in the ſhoulder, the Surgeons hauing drawne out the wood of the Arrow, and not the enuenomed yron forke; mangled the Arme with cruell inciſions, that the paines thereof haſtned his death, when he had raigned almoſt nine yeares. He was buried at Founteuerard in France at his Fathers feete, the 6. of Aprill, in the yeare 1199. without any lawfull iſſue. He had two baſe children, Philip a ſonne, and Iſabell a daughter.

King Richard the firſt did beare for his Armes in his Pauis or Shield, one lyon rampant: and this is the firſt Armes that euer I could ſee any authority for.

King Iohn.

IOhn, the ſixt and youngeſt ſonne of King Henry the ſecond, was borne in the yeare 1166. and by his Father was made Earle of Moriton, and Lord of Ireland; and by the bounty and guift of King Richard his Brother, hee was Earle of Cornwall, Lancaſter & Somerſet, and after his brothers death, at Roane he was created Duke of Normandy. And laſtly, vpon the Aſcenſion day, 1199. hee was crowned at Weſtminſter, King of England. He was ſur-named Iohn Sanz-terre, becauſe (when hee was King) hee reſigned both Crowne and Kingdome to the Pope, which Pandulphe the Legate kept for the ſpace of foure dayes to the Popes vſe. The whole courſe of this Kings gouernment, was accompanied with continuall troubles; and his two Perſecutors were Pope Innocent the third, and Philip the ſecond, then King of France. He married two wiues, the firſt was Iſabell, daughter & co-heyre of William Earle of Gloceſter, ſonne of Earle Robert, married to him when he was Earle Moritayne, the firſt of King Richard the firſt, and after tenne yeares (hauing no iſſue) was the firſt yeare of his Reigne diuorced from him, vnder pretence of conſanguinity, and married to Geffrey Magna-vile, Earle of Eſ-

ſex; and after his deceaſe, to Hubert de Burgo, Earle of Kent, and dyed without iſſue.

Iſabell, ſecond wife to King Iohn, was daughter and heyre of Aymer, Earle of Angoleſme, by whom he had iſſue, as heereafter followeth. This Iſabell ouer-liued King Iohn, and married Hugh de Brun, Earle of the Marches of Aquitaine, & Lord of Luſignan and Valence in Poytou, (to whom ſhe ſhould haue bene married, before ſhe married King Iohn) by whom ſhe had diuers children, greatly aduanced by King Henry the third, their halfe brother. This King, lying in the Abbey of Swanſteed, not farre from Lincolne, was poyſoned by a Monke, of the Order of S. Bernard; who to make his match ſure, and to auoide iealouſie and ſuſpition, firſt dranke vnto the King, and poyſoned himſelfe: the King beeing brought from the ſaide Abbey in a Horſe-litter, vnto the Caſtle of Newarke, there dyed on S. Lukes night, the 14. Kalends of Nouember, and was after buried at Worceſter, in the yeare 1216. when he had reigned 17. yeares, fiue moneths, lacking eight dayes, at the age of 51. yeares.

This Iohn, beeing King of England and Duke of Normandy, in right of his Grand-mother Mauld the Empreſſe; and Duke of Aquitaine by Elianor his Mother, ioyned the Armes of Aquitaine, being a Lyon paſſant gardant, vnto the Armes of Normandy and England, making it Gueulles trois Lyons paſſant gardant d'or.

King Johns Iſſue by Iſabell his laſt Wife.

King Henry the third, borne at Wincheſter, the firſt of October, 1208. being the tenth yeare of his Fathers Reigne.

Richard, ſecond ſonne of King Iohn, was borne the next yeare after his Brother King Henry, by whom he was made Knight, and created Earle of Cornwal; and by the Electors, choſen to be Emperor of the Weſt, and crowned King of the Romans and Almany, at the Citty of Acon in Germony; (others haue, at Aquiſgraue) He married three wiues; the firſt was Iſabell, daughter of William Marſhall the younger, Earle of Penbroke, widdow of Gilbert de Clare, Earle of Glocester, by whom he had iſſue, Henry ſlaine at Vitirbo in Italy, & Iohn, who dyed both without iſſue. His ſecond wife was Senchia, daughter of Raymond Earle of Prouince, and ſiſter of Queen Elianor his brothers wife, who was crowned with him at Acon, and by whom he had iſſue, Edmond Earle of Cornwall, & others. His third and laſt wife was Beatrix, Niece to the Archbiſhop of Coleyne. This Richard dyed at his Mannor of Barkhamſted, the 20. of Aprill, 1271. others ſay, 1272. and his body was buried in the Monaſtery of Hayles in Gloceſterſhire, and his heart in the Abbey of Reuly at Oxford, which was of his foundation.

Ioane the eldeſt daughter, was married to Alexander, the ſecond King of Scots, who who comming into England, to see her Brother King Henry the third, dyed at London, and was buried in the Nunnery at Tarent in Dorsetshire, the fourth of March, 1236.

Elianor second daughter, was first married to William Marshall the younger, Earle of Penbroke, who dyed before the wedding Feast was ended. She married after, Simon Mountfort Earle of Leicester (sonne of Simon Earle Mounfort in France) who maintaining the Barons warres, against King Henry the third, was slaine at the battaile of Euesham, 1265. After whose death, she and her Children were banished England, and dyed in the Nunnery at Montarges in France; as in the Title of Earles of Leicester is more at large.

He caused Walter de Langton, Bishop of Couentry and Lichfield, and Lord Treasurer of England, to be arrested by Sir Iohn Felton, Constable of the Tower of London, and sent to Wallingford, there to bee kept prisoner, and his goods to bee confiscate and giuen to Pieres of Gaueston; which Pieres being before banished England by the said Bishops meanes, was now sent for and receiued againe into most high fauour, and made Earle of Cornwall, his principall Secretary, & Lord Chamberlaine. By whose company and society,he was ſodainly corrupted; whereby he neglected and diſdained the good counſell and company of his Nobility,giuing himſelfe to wantonneſſe, paſſing his time in voluptuous pleaſure,and riotous exceſſe. And to helpe this matter forward,Pieres furniſhed the Court with Ieſters, Ruffians, flattering paraſites, and other vile and naughty rybalds, that the King might ſpend both dayes and nights in ieſting,playing, banquetting, and other ſuch diſhonourable exerciſes. And to aduance thoſe like vnto himſelfe,he procured for them honourable Offices and preferments: all which, greatly encreaſed the hatred of the Nobility, and the more,in regard of his high & haughty cariage of himſelfe. Being now aduanced to honour, he would not once yeeld an inch to any; which procured him great enuy amongſt the cheefeſt Peeres of the Realme; namely,Henry Lacy,Earle of Lincolne; Guy,Earle of Warwicke; and Almerick de Valence,Earle of Penbroke,the Earle of Arundell,and others; who,vpon ſuch wrath and diſpleaſure,as they had conceiued againſt him, thought it not meete to ſuffer the ſame any longer;in hope that the Kings minde might haply be altered to better purpoſe,if the corrupter thereof were once baniſhed from him.

Heereupon they aſſembled together in a Parliament time, at the New Temple in London,and there agreed,that the ſaid Pieres ſhould depart, and be baniſhed the Realme againe the ſecond time;and not to returne againe at any time after. To this the King (but ſore againſt his will) agreed, and made his Letters Patents to the ſaide Lords, to witneſſe the ſame: and the Archbiſhop of Canterbury did pronounce the ſaid Pieres accurſed,if he tarried any longer then the time appointed him,and likewiſe all thoſe that ſhould ayde,helpe, or maintaine him. Whereupon Pieres was conſtrained to ſhip himſelfe at Briſtow for Ireland, though ſore againſt the Kings will, threatning the Lords to bee reuenged. But not long after,Pieres returned againe into England, and came to the King at Yorke; at whoſe comming, the King greatly reioyced; and lying in the Biſhops Pallace,cauſed Pieres to be lodged in the Caſtle,not farre from him.

Not long after,the King was willing (for his recreation) to take the Sea,leauing Pieres of Gaueſton at Yorke. The Barons purſued Gaueſton, who fledde to Scarborough, where the Barons tooke him, and carried him to a place called Blacklow,and there the 9.of Iune,cauſed his head to be ſtricken off.Afterwards, the young Prince,the Queene and Nobility,finding fault with the two Spencers (Hugh the Father,and Hugh the ſonne, for miſleading and abuſing the King & State,in like manner as Gaueſton had done) cauſed them likewiſe to be taken & put to death,without any triall, or anſwer. Which done, the Queene with her Sonne and the Nobility,called a Parliament, wherin King Edward was iudged not worthy to beare or weare the Crowne;but(for diuers cauſes) was to be depoſed, and Prince Edward his ſonne,to bee choſen in his place. This beeing agreed on, King Edward being all this while priſoner in Kenilworth Caſtle, was taken and carried from thence by night, to Corffe Caſtle, and from thence to Barkely Caſtle,where he was moſt cruelly murdered, by Thomas Corney & Iohn Maltreuers,and others his keepers. He was depoſed the 25. of Ianuary,1326. when he had reigned almoſt twenty yeares, and was murdered the 21.of September,1327.and his body was buried at Glocester.

He

He married Iſabell, daughter of Philip the faire King of France, and ſiſter and heire of her three Brothers, Lodowike Hutin, Philip the long, and Charles the faire. She was married in our Lady Church at Bolloigne, the 22. of Ianuary, 1308. being but twelue yeares olde, and was his wife twenty yeares, and his widdow thirty, and dyed at Riſing neere London, and was buried in the Gray-Fryars in London.

His Iſſue.

Edward (ſur-named of Windſore) eldeſt ſonne, borne in Windſore Caſtle, the 13. of October, 1312. the ſixt of his Fathers Reigne. He was firſt created Prince of Wales and Duke of Aquitaine; in a Parliament held at Yorke, 1322. and was made Lord warden of England; vnto whom all the Lords ſwore fealty, and receiued the oath of allegiance. He was after King of England, by the name of King Edward the third.

Iohn (ſur-named of Eltham) ſecond ſonne, was borne at Eltham, in the yeare 1315. and at twelue yeares of age, was created Earle of Cornwall, at a Parliament held at Salisbury, 1327. and after dyed in Scotland at S. Iohns Towne, vnmarried, 1353. and lyeth buried at Weſtminſter.

Ioane eldeſt daughter, was borne in the Tower of London, and was married at Barwicke (being very young) the eighteenth day of Iuly, 1329. to Dauid Prince of Scotland, ſonne and heyre of Robert Bruſe, being but ſeuen yeares of age. This Dauid was after King, by the name of Dauid the ſecond. She was his wife 28. yeares, and comming into England to viſite her brother King Edward the third, dyed without iſſue, 1353. and was buried in the Gray-Fryars in London.

Elianor ſecond daughter, was married to Reginald, ſecond Earle of Gelders, for his ſecond Wife, and had giuen her in marriage, 15000. pounds, 1332. Who being Vicar general of the empire, to the emperor Lewis of Bauaria, created him the firſt Duke of Gelders. She had iſſue, Reginald and Edward, both Dukes after their Father, and dyed without iſſue, leauing his Dutchy and his Wife to his Nephew William, Duke of Gulike, his halfe ſiſters ſonne.

King Edward the third.

EDward, the third of that Name, borne in Windesore Castle, 1312. after the deposing of his Father, began his Reigne the 25. of Ianuary, 1327. and was crowned at Westminster, the first day of February after, by Walter, Archbishop of Canterbury.

And because he was but 14. yeares of age, and not able to gouerne of himselfe, it was decreed, that twelue of the greatest Lords within the Realme, should haue the rule and gouernment, vntill hee came of more yeares: which were, the Arch-Bishops of Canterbury and Yorke, the Bishops of Winchester and Hereford, Henry Earle of Lancaster, Thomas of Brotherton, Marshall of England; Edmond of Woodstocke, Earle of Kent; Iohn Earle Warren, Thomas Lord Wake, Henry Lord Percy, Sir Oliuer Ingham, and the Lord Iohn Ros; who were sworne of the Kings counsell, and charged with the gouernment, as they would answere the same.

In the first yeare of this Kings Reigne, dyed Charles King of France, the third Brother of Queene Isabell, Mother of King Edward the third; by whose death, the Kingdome of France did descend to King Edward, by Isabell his Mother, the onely sister and heyre of her three Brothers, Lodowike Hutin, Philip le Long, and Charles the faire, Kings of France. But the said Kingdome was vsurped and possessed by Philip de Valois, Vnckle to the saide Charles, who did intrude himselfe by force.

In the yeare 1339. King Edward going to make his clayme to the Kingdome of France, (praied ayde of the Flemings, who before had sworne, and bound themselues in a bond of a Million of golde in the Popes Chamber, that they should alwayes helpe the King of France, and fight vnder his Ensigne) for release whereof, King Edward, by the perswasion of Iaques D'Artuell of Gaunt, did quarter the Armes of France, with the Armes of England, and proclaimed himselfe King of France. By which acte, the Flemings held themselues discharged of their band and oath. After, Charles the sixt French King of that Name, enuying greatly, that the Kings of England should beare the Armes of France, (which was semie de luces) changed the same vnto three De luces; of which thing, King Henry the fift of England tooke example, and bare the like. By reason ſon whereof, the Kings of France, haue euer ſince ceaſed to make any further change of their Armes.

He married Philip, daughter of William Earle of Henault and Holland, and ſiſters daughter of Philip of Valoys, King of France afore mentioned. This marriage was at Yorke, the 24. of Ianuary, and ſhe was crowned at Weſtminſter, the firſt Sunday in Lent following, 1327. She was his Wife 42. yeares, and dyed the 15. of Auguſt, 1369. and was buried at Weſtminſter. King Edward her husband, dyed at Sheene, now called Richmond, the 21. of Iune, 1377. after hee had liued 65. yeares, and reigned 50. yeares, 4. moneths, and 28. dayes. His body was conuayed from Sheene, by his foure ſonnes, Lionell Duke of Clarence, Iohn of Gaunt Duke of Lancaſter, Edmond of Langley Duke of Yorke, and Thomas of Woodſtocke Earle of Cambridge, with others, and was buried at Weſtminſter.

His Iſſue.

Edward eldeſt ſonne (borne at Woodſtocke the fifteenth of Iuly, 1329.) was created Prince of Wales, Duke of Aquitaine and Cornwall, and Earle of Cheſter, and Earle of Kent in right of his Wife Ioane, daughter of Edmond Earle of Kent (brother by the Father, to King Edward the ſecond) She had bin twice married before, firſt to the Earle of Salisbury, and after to Thomas Holland. She had iſſue by Prince Edward, two ſonnes, Edward borne at Angoleſme, who died yong; and Richard borne at Burdeaux, who was after King of England, by the name of King Richard the ſecond.

This Prince had iſſue alſo, two baſtard ſonnes, Sir Iohn Sounder, and Sir Roger Claridon Knights; the latter was attainted in King Henry the fourths time.

William ſecond ſonne, was borne at Hatfield in Hartfordſhire, 1335. and was ſur-named William of Hatfield; he had his chriſten name of William Earle of Henault, his grand-father, and dyed in his childhood, and was buried at Yorke.

Lionell third ſonne, was borne in the Citty of Antwerpe, the 29. of Nouember, 1338. and was ſur-named of Antwerpe. He had two Wiues, the firſt was Elizabeth, daughter and heyre of William Burgh, Earle of Vlſter in Ireland, in whoſe right he was firſt created Earle of Vlſter. And becauſe he had with her the Honour of Clare in Norfolke, as parcell of the Inheritance of her Grandmother (Elizabeth, ſiſter and co-heyre of the laſt Gilbert de Clare Earle of Gloceſter) He was in Parliament, 1362. created Duke of Clarence; from which Dutchie, the name of Clarenceux, King of Armes of the South parts of England, taketh his denomination. He had iſſue by the ſaide Elizabeth, one onely daughter named Phillip, married to Edmond Mortimer Earle of March, Grand-father of Anne, Counteſſe of Cambridge, Grand-mother of King Edward the fourth.

He was after married at Millaine in Lumbardy, to the Lady Violanta, daughter of Galeazo, the ſecond Duke thereof; as in the Earles of Clare is ſet forth.

Iohn fourth ſonne, borne at Gaunt in Flanders, 1340. was firſt created Earle of of Richmond, which was ſurrendred to Iohn Duke of Britaine, ſur-named The valiant, who had married Mary his ſiſter, to whoſe Dukedome formerly it had belonged.

This Iohn married three Wiues, the firſt was Blanch, daughter and heire of Henry Duke of Lancaſter (ſonne of Edmond Croochbacke) by whom he had iſſue, King Henry the fourth; Phillip, Wife to Iohn the firſt, King of Portingall; and Elizabeth, firſt married to Iohn Holland Earle of Huntington, and after to Sir Iohn Cornwall Baron of Fanhope. His ſecond Wife was Conſtance, eldeſt daughter of Peter King of Caſtile and Leon, in whoſe right he intituled himſelfe King of both thoſe Realmes, and had iſſue Katherine, Wife to Henry the third, ſonne of King Iohn, King of both thoſe Realmes.

His third Wife was Katherine Swynford, Widdow of Sir Otho or Otes Swynford, Knight of Lincolnſhire, daughter and co-heyre of Sir Payn Roet, alias Guien, King of Armes, a Gaſcoigne borne, whoſe other daughter Anne, was married to Sir Geffrey Chaucer Knight, the Poet. By this Katherine Swinford, he had iſſue before marriage, and made legitimate by Acte of Parliament, the 20. yeare of King Richard the ſecond; Iohn Earle of Somerſet, Thomas Duke of Exceſter, & Earle of Dorſet, Henry Biſhop of Wincheſter, and Cardinall; and Ioane, firſt married to Raphe Neuill, firſt Earle of Weſtmerland, and after to Robert Ferrars, Baron of Oueſley. Theſe children begotten of Katherine Swynford, were ſur-named Beauforts, of Beaufort Caſtle in France, where they were borne.

Edmond of Langley fift ſonne, was created Earle of Cambridge, in the 36. yeare of King Edward the third, and after Duke of Yorke, 1386. He married Iſabell, daughter and co heyre of Peter, King of Caſtile and Leon, as in the Title of Earles of Cambridge and Dukes of Yorke.

William, ſur-named of Windſore, where he was borne, dyed young.

Thomas the youngeſt ſonne, ſur-named of Woodſtocke (where he was borne) was by King Richard the ſecond, firſt created Earle of Buckingham, and after D. of Gloceſter, as in thoſe Titles is more at large.

Iſabell, eldeſt daughter of King Edward the third, was married at Windſore to Ingelram de Guiſnes, Lord of Coucy, Earle of Soyſons, and Duke of Auſtria, whom King Edward her Father, made Earle of Bedford, by whom ſhe had iſſue two daughters, Mary, married to Henry of Barre, and Philip, Wife to Robert Vere Earle of Oxford, Duke of Ireland, and Marqueſſe of Dublyn, who after forſooke her, and married one Lancerona, a Ioyners daughter, who came into England with Queene Philip out of Bohemia.

Ioane ſecond daughter, married by Proxy to Alphons, the eleuenth King of Caſtile and Leon.

Blanch third daughter dyed young, and was buried at Weſtminſter.

Mary fourth daughter, married to Iohn Mountfort Duke of Britaine.

Margaret youngeſt daughter, was the firſt Wife of Iohn Haſtings Earle of Penbroke.

King Richard the ſecond.

Richard the ſecond, borne at Burdeaux, ſonne of Edward the blacke Prince, and grandchilde to King Edward the third, being eleuen yeares olde, began his Reigne the 21. day of Iune, in the yeare of our Lord, 1377. and was crowned King at Weſtminſter, the 16. of Iuly. In beauty, bounty and liberality, he farre paſſed all his Progenitors; but was ouermuch giuen to reſt and quietneſſe, little regarding matters of Armes: and being young, was moſt ruled by young Counſell, regarding little the Counſell of the ſage and wiſe men of the Realm. Which thing, turned this Land to great trouble, & himſelfe to extreme miſery; For being firſt diſgraced by his Couſin, Henry of Bullingbroke, Duke of Hereford, ſonne of Iohn of Gaunt Duke of Lancaſter, he was at length by him (with the generall conſent of a whole Parliament) depoſed frō his Crowne and Kingdome, the 29. of September, 1399. and committed to priſon, and afterwards wickedly murdered. For being ſent to Pomfret Caſtle to be ſafely kept, and Princely maintained; was ſhortly after by King Henries direction and commandement, (who feared leaſt his Eſtate might bee ſhaken, ſo long as King Richard liued) wickedly aſſaulted in his lodging, by Sir Pieres of Exton, and eight other armed men, from one of which (with a Princely courage) he wreſted a browne Bill, and therewith ſlew foure of them; and with an admirable reſolution, fought with all the reſt: vntill comming by his owne Chaire (in which the baſe cowardly Knight himſelfe ſtood for his owne ſafety) he was by him ſtricken with a Pole-axe, in the hinder part of his head, that preſently he fell downe to the ground and dyed, when hee had reigned 22. yeares, 14. weekes, and two dayes.

He married two Wiues, the firſt was Anne, daughter of the Emperor Charles the fourth, and ſiſter of Wenceſlaus, Emperour and King of Bohemia, who was crowned Queene the 22. of Ianuary, 1384. hauing bene his Wife ten yeares, and dyed at Sheene in Surrey, 1394. and was buried at Weſtminſter without iſſue.

His

His ſecond Wife was Iſabell, daughter of Charles the ſixt, King of France, whom he affianced in the 19. yeare of his Reigne, ſhe being then but 7. yeares olde: by reaſon whereof, he neuer had any company with her. She was after the ſaid Richards death, ſent back againe into France, being then not full twelue yeares olde, without any dowry, becauſe the marriage was neuer conſumated. The Lord Henry Percy had the conuaying of her, in the yeare, 1401.

King HENRY the Fourth.

THE right of the Crowne of England, after the death of King Richard without iſſue, ought to haue deſcended to Edmond Mortimer, Earle of March, ſonne and heyre of Roger Mortimer, whoſe Mother Philip, was daughter and heyre of Lionell, Duke of Clarence, third ſonne of king Edward the third. Which notwithſtanding, Henry, ſur-named of Bullingbroke, Duke of Hereford, and ſonne and heyre of Iohn of Gaunt, Duke of Lancaſter, fourth Son of king Edward the third, was elected king, and began his Reigne the 29. of September, 1399. After which, he made many new Officers, viz. Thomas his ſecond ſon, he made Lord high Steward of England. The Earle of Northumberland, Conſtable of England. The Earle of Weſtmerland, Marſhall of England, &c. and was crowned at Weſtminſter, the 13. of October after. The Dukes of Yorke, Surrey & Albemarle, with the Earle of Gloceſter, bare the Canopy ouer him (which Office, now the Barons of the Cinque-Ports do execute) Sir Tho: Dymmoke (anceſtor of the now Noble and worthy knight, Sir Edw. Dymmok of Lincolnſhire) was Champion, and rode 3. times about the Hall in compleate armor, challenging any that ſhould gaine-ſay the kings right, throwing down his Gauntlet to maintaine the ſame. He created Henry his eldeſt Son, Prince of Wales, Duke of Cornwall, Earle of Cheſter, and heyre apparent to the Crown; and at his death, he gaue him this charge to keepe (as he would anſwer the ſame before God) viz. To miniſter the Lawes indifferently, to eaſe the oppreſſed, to beware of flatterers, not to defer iuſtice, nor to be ſparing of mercy. Puniſh (quoth he) the oppreſſors of thy people, ſo ſhalt thou obtaine fauor of God, and loue of thy ſubiects; who, whiles they haue wealth, ſo long ſhalt thou haue obedience; but being made poore by oppreſſions, will be euer ready to ſtir & make rebellion & inſurrection.

¶¶¶ He

He yeelded to God his ſpirit, the 20. day of March, 1412. the 46. yeare of his age, when he had reigned 13. yeares, ſixe moneths, lacking ten dayes. His body being conueyed to Canterbury, was there buried.

He married two Wiues, the firſt was Mary, ſecond daughter and co-heyre of Humfrey de Bohun, Earle of Hereford, Eſſex and Northampton, and Conſtable of England, who dyed in the yeare 1394. and was buried at Canterbury.

His ſecond Wife was Ioane, daughter of Charles King of Nauarre, and Widdow of Iohn Mountfort Duke of Britaine, who dyed at Hauering in the Bower in Eſſex, without iſſue, the tenth of Iuly, 1437. and was buried at Canterbury.

His Iſſue by his firſt Wife.

Henry eldeſt ſonne, was created Prince of Wales, Duke of Cornwall & Earle of Cheſter, in the firſt yeare of his Fathers Keigne. This Henry, in the time of his Fathers baniſhment, was ſent into Ireland; and, vpon hearing of his Fathers ariuall into England, King Richard cauſed him to bee impriſoned with Humfrey, ſonne and heyre of Thomas of Woodſtocke, in the Caſtle of Trime in Ireland; but in the firſt yeare of King Henry the 4. they were both deliuered, and comming into England, Humfrey dyed of the plague at Cheſter.

Thomas ſecond ſonne, was created Duke of Clarence, in the eleuenth yeare of King Henry the 4. and in the 8. yeare of King Henry the 5. he was made Lieutenant Generall of France and Normandy; and (in the yeare after) was ſlaine at Bangy-Bridge in France, by the Duke of Orliance. He married Margaret, daughter of Thomas Holland Earle of Kent, and Widow of Iohn Beaufort Earle of Somerſet; as is more at large in the Title of the Dukes and Earles of Clarence.

Iohn third ſonne, was made Duke of Bedford, the 11. yeare of King Henry the 4. his Father; and in the fift yeare of Henry the 5. his brother, he was by Parliament made Regent of England, and Head of the publike Wealth. He knighted King Henry the 6. his Nephew, at a Parliament held at Leiceſter, in the 4. yeare of his Reigne. And in the firſt yeare of the ſaid King Henry the 6. being made Regent of France, Charles King of France dying: the moſt part of France was deliuered to him by the Nobility there, to the vſe of King Henry the ſixt. His marriages and death is more at large in the Title of Bedford.

Humfrey, fourth ſonne of King Henry the 4. was by his Brother King Henry the 5. made Duke of Gloceſter; and in the firſt yeare of Henry the 6. he was made Protector of the Kingdome of England, for 15. yeares, during the ſaid kings minority; and was ſtiled, Humfrey, by the grace of God, Sonne, Brother and Vnckle to Kings, Duke of Gloceſter, Henault, Holland, Zeland and Penbroke, Lord of Friezland, great Chamberlaine of England, Protector and Defender of the Kingdome and Church of England. He had two Wiues.

His firſt Wife was Iaquet, daughter and heyre of William, Duke of Bauaria, and Earle of Holland, who was before betrothed to Iohn Duke of Brabant, and was therefore after diuorced from this Humfrey without iſſue.

His ſecond Wife was Elianor, daughter of Reginald, Lord Cobham of Sterburgh burgh in Surrey, who for witchcraft and poyſonings, was much defamed. Queene Margaret, Wife to King Henry the ſixt, enuyed greatly his eſtate & gouernment, and practiſed with others, his ouerthrow and deſtruction; for after, he was found murdered in his bed, at Bury in Suffolke, and was after buried at S. Albons in Hertfordſhire.

Blanch eldeſt daughter, was married at Collen, to William Duke of Bauaria, ſonne and heyre of Lewis of Bauaria. After ſhe married the King of Arragon: and thirdly, ſhe married the Duke of Barre, but had no iſſue by any of them.

Philip, ſecond daughter of King Henry the 4. was married to Iohn, King of Denmarke and Norway, and dyed without iſſue.

King HENRY the fift.

Henry the fift, ſur-named of Monmouth in the Marches of Wales, where he was borne, in the yeare 1388. Hee began his reigne, the 20. day of March, in the yeare of our Lord 1412. And the ninth day of Aprill after, hee was crowned King at Weſtminſter, by Thomas of Arundell, Archbiſhop of Canterbury. Which done, he called before him all his yong Lords and Companions, that were followers of his young actions; to euery of them he gaue rich guifts, and commanded, that as many as would change their life and manners, (as he intended to do) ſhould follow him ſtill; and to thoſe that would perſiſt in their former life and conuerſation, hee commanded vppon paine of death, neuer after to come in his preſence. This Prince, by the inſtigation and prouokement of ſome of theſe vnthrifty and lewd Companions, in his Fathers dayes, ſmote the then Lord Chiefe-Iuſtice of the Kings Bench, a blow on the Face: for which, hee was by his Father impriſoned, and put from his place of being Preſident of the Kings Counſell; which Office (to his great greefe and diſgrace) the King gaue to Thomas Duke of Clarence, his ſecond ſonne.

This King following his Father, vſed euery day when no ſtate was kept, after dinner, to haue a Cuſhion laid on the cupboord, & there to leane a whole houre or more, to receiue Petitions and heare complaints of whoſoeuer would come.

And in thoſe dayes, when the King dyned in his Chamber, the Steward of the Houſhold, ſate alwayes in the Hall, vnder the Cloth of Eſtate, the ſame being rolled vp aboue his head, and ſuch Knights with him, as waited that time vpon the King. He dyed in the Caſtle of Boys de Viſcenne, not farre from Paris, the 13. day of Auguſt, 1422, when he had reigned nine yeares, fiue moneths, and odde dayes, being 36. yeares old, and was buried at Weſtminſter.

He married Katherine, daughter of Charles the ſixt, King of France, at Troyes in Champaigne, the third of Iune, 1420. and the 14. of February after, ſhe was crowned at Weſtminſter, and was his Wife, two yeares and three moneths. She was after married to a Noble Gentleman, named Owen Theodor of Wales, by whom ſhe had iſſue three ſonnes, Edmond, Iaſper and Owen; Edmond was made Earle of Richmond; and married Margaret, daughter and ſole heyre of Iohn D. of Somerſet, and had iſſue, King Henry the ſeuenth: Iaſper the ſecond ſonne, was Earle of Penbroke, and after Duke of Bedford. This Queene Katherine dyed at Bermondſey in Southwarke, the ſecond of Iune, 1436. and was buried at Weſtminſter, leauing iſſue by King Henry the fift her husband, King Henry the ſixt. This King left Seme de lices, and bare three.

Et portoit, France, eſcartelle d'engleterre.

King HENRY the ſixt.

Henry the ſixt, borne at Windſore, being an infant not nine moneths olde, began his Reigne the laſt of Auguſt, in the yeare of our Lord, 1422. The gouernment of his Realmes was committed to Humfrey Duke of Glocester, and the guard of his perſon to Thomas Duke of Excester, and to Iohn Duke of Bedford, the Regiment of France. Theſe his three Vnckles, with great wiſedome and valour diſcharged the truſt committed vnto them. This Henry, on the ſixt of Nouember, 1429. in the 8. yeare of his Reigne was crowned at Weſtminſter with ſolemnization. Hee tooke his iourney to France, and comming to Paris, was receiued with great ſolemnity: and on the 17. of Nouember, 1431. was crowned King of France, in our Lady Church in Paris.

Hee eſpouſed Margaret, daughter of Reyner, Duke of Anion, (and titulary King of Cicily, Naples and Ieruſalem) by Proxy at the Citty of Towers in Touraine, in Saint Martyns Church, by William de la Pole his Procurator, in the preſence of the French King and Queene; which King, was Vnckle to the Brides Father, and the French Queen, Aunt to her Mother. She being conueyed to the Abbey of Tichfield, was there ſolemnly married to King Henry the ſixt, the 22. of Aprill, 1445. and was crowned at Weſtminſter, the 30. day of May after. In the 33. yeare of this Kings Reigne, he loſt the battaile at S. Albons; and was ta-taken priſoner at the battaile of Northampton, by the Earle of Warwicke, the 38. yeare of his Reigne; and the yeare after, was deliuered againe by Queen Margaret his Wife, after the ſecond battaile of S. Albons; but in the ſame, after the battaile at Mortimers Croſſe, the King and Queene fled to Yorke; and the Earle of March, comming to London with his power, was proclaimed King of England. And in the fourth yeare of his Reigne, hee tooke King Henry, neere the Abbey of Selby in Lancaſhire, and brought him priſoner to the Tower of London. And in the ninth yeare of his Reigne, King Henry the ſixt, was againe deliuered, by the Duke of Clarence and the Earle of Warwicke.

King Edward flying into Flanders, was proclaimed a Vſurper; but the next yeare after, King Edward returning againe into England, and comming to London, tooke king Henry in the Biſhops Pallace, and after gaue battaile to the Earle of Warwicke, at Barnet, where the ſaid Earle, with his brother Iohn Neuill Marqueſſe Mountague were ſlaine. And in the ſame yeare, 1471. he alſo gaue a great ouerthrow to Queene Margaret, at Tewkesbury; in which battaile, the ſaide Queene, with Prince Edward her onely ſonne, were taken priſoners; Prince Edward being firſt ſtricken by King Edward, Richard Duke of Gloceſter, ſtabbed him to the heart with his Dagger. The Queene his Mother was conuayed to London, where ſhe remained in priſon, vntill Reyner her Father purchaſed her deliuerance with great ſummes of money; who after returning to her owne Country, there dyed.

After this battaile at Tewkesbury, King Edward the fourth came to London, on the 21. of May, 1471. with thirty thouſand men: and the ſame night, King Henry was murdered in the Tower of London, and the morrow after, brought into S. Paules Church in London, in an open Coffin bare-faced, where hee bled: From thence he was conuayed to the Blacke-Fryars, and there alſo bled. Laſtly, his body was conuayed to Windſore, and there buried.

King Edward the fourth.

Edward, Earle of March, borne at Roan in Normandy, ſonne and heyre of Richard Plantagenet Duke of Yorke, by Cicely Neuill, daughter of Raſe, Earle of Weſtmerland; about the age of eighteene yeares, began his Reigne, the 4. day of March, 1460. and was crowned at Weſtminſter, the 28. of Iune after.

Philip Commines, writing of the death of this King Edward the fourth, ſaith. The late King Edward the 4. of England, being heyre of the Houſe of Yorke, vtterly deſtroyed the Houſe of Lancaſter, vnder the which, both his Father and he had liued many yeares. And although the ſaid King Edward had done homage to King Henry the 6. being of the houſe of Lancaſter: did he not afterwards hold him priſoner many yeares, in the Tower of London, where in the end he was murdered? Haue wee not ſeene alſo (ſaith hee) the Earle of Warwicke, principall Gouernour of all the ſaid King Edwards Offices (after he had put to death all his enemies, eſpecially the Duke of Somerſet) in the ende became deadly enemy to the king his Maſter, gaue his daughter in marriage, to Edward Prince of Wales, ſonne of King Henry, attempted againe to ſet vp the houſe of Lancaſter, paſt with the ſaid Prince into England, diſcomfited in the field and ſlaine, both he and his brother, with many other Noblemen their kindred, and others, who in time paſt had done the like to their enemies? After all this, the children of theſe, when the world turned, reuenged themſelues, and cauſed (in like manner) the other to die. For after King Edward was quiet in his place and Realme, and receiued yearely out of France, 50000. Crownes, paide him in the Tower of London, and was growne ſo rich, that richer he could not be; he dyed ſodainly, as it were of melancholy, becauſe of the French Kings marriage with the Lady Margaret, the Duke of Auſtriches daughter. For ſo ſoone as hee was aduertiſed thereof, hee fell ſicke, and began then to perceiue, how he had bene abuſed, touching the marriage of his daughter, whom he had cauſed to be called the Lady Dolphineſſe: then alſo was the penſion (which he had receiued out of France) taken frō him, which he called Tribute, &c.

He

He married Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Wooduile Earle Riuers, and Iaqueline his Wife, Dutcheſſe of Bedford, and Widdow of Sir Iohn Grey, ſlaine at S. Albons, where he was knighted, the day before his death, by King Henry the ſixt. After whoſe death, ſhe was priuatly married to King Edward the fourth, the firſt day of May, at his Mannor of Grafton in Northamptonſhire, 1464. and the next yeare after, was crowned Queene at Weſtminſter, the 26. day of May. She was his Wife, 18. yeare, eleuen moneths, and nine dayes, and in the beginning of King Edward the fift (her ſonnes Reigne) ſhe was forced to take Sanctuary at Weſtminſter; and after, hauing all her lands and poſſeſſions ſeized vpon by King Henry the ſeuenth, liued in meane eſtate in the Monaſtery of Bermondſey in Southwarke, where not long after ſhe dyed, and was buried at Windſore, by King Edward her husband, who dyed before at Weſtminſter, the 9. day of April, 1483. at the age of 41. yeares, when he had reigned 22. yeares, one moneth, and odde dayes.

His Iſſue.

Edward, eldeſt ſonne of King Edward the fourth, borne in the Sanctuary at Weſtminſter, the 4. of Nouember, 1471. the tenth yeare of his Fathers Reign; at that time King Edward was expulſed the Realme, by the Earle of Warwicke; but Fortune changing, the Father was reſtored, and the Sonne created Prince of Wales, and Earle of Cheſter, the firſt of Iuly.

Richard, ſecond ſonne of King Edward the fourth, borne at Shrewsbury, and being but a childe, was created Duke of Yorke. He was betrothed vnto Anne, daughter and heyre of Iohn Mowbray Duke of Norfolke, Earle Marſhall, Warren and Nottingham; but he enioyed neither wife, nor life long, for he was (with his brother Edward) murdered in the Tower of London; which place euer ſince is called, The bloody Tower.

George third ſonne, was alſo borne at Shrewsbury, and being very yong, died and was buried at Windſore.

Elizabeth eldeſt daughter, borne at Weſtminſter, the 11. of February, 1466. ſhe was promiſed in marriage to Charles the Dolphin of France, wooed and courted by Richard Duke of Gloceſter, her vnhappy Vnckle, after he had murdered her two Brothers, and he then King; but after ſhe was married to King Henry the ſeuenth.

Cecily ſecond daughter, was motioned to marry Iames, Prince of Scotland & Duke of Rothſay, but it tooke no effect, and ſo ſhe was married after to Iohn Viſcount Welles, whom ſhe out-liued, and married againe to one Kyme of Lincolneſhire, and dyed without iſſue.

Anne

Anne third daughter, married to Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolke, Earle Marſhall, and Lord Treaſurer of England, and had iſſue, two ſonnes who died very young. She dyed without iſſue, and was buried at Framingham in Norfolke.

Mary fift daughter, was promiſed in marriage to the King of Denmarke; but ſhe dyed before marriage, in the Tower of Greenwich, 1482. and was buried at Windſore.

Margaret ſixt daughter, dyed in her Infancy.

Katherine ſeuenth daughter, married William Courtney, Earle of Deuonſhire, and Lord of Ochampton, and had iſſue, Henry Earle of Deuonſhire, whom Henry the eight created Marqueſſe of Exceſter, 1525.

His Baſtards.

Arthur Plantagenet, baſe ſonne of King Edward the fourth, begotten of Elizabeth Lucy, was created Viſcount Liſle at Bridewell in London, the 26. of Aprill, 1533. in right of his Wife Elizabeth, ſiſter and heyre of Sir Iohn Grey Viſcount Liſle, the Widdow of Edmond Dudley. This Arthur had iſſue three daughters; Bridget, Francis and Elizabeth, as is more at large in the Title of Viſcounts.

Elizabeth, baſe daughter of King Edward the fourth, married to Sir Thomas Lumley Knight, who dyed before his Father George Lord Lumley, and had iſſue, Richard Lord Lumley, that dyed the ſecond of King Henry the eight; & George Lumley a ſecond ſonne.

King EDVVARD the fift.

THis young King, being vnder the protection of Richard Duke of Gloceſter his vnnaturall Vnckle, at the death of his Father beeing in Wales, was brought and lodged in the Biſhops Pallace of London, the 4. day of May, 1483. The Queene his Mother, with his yong brother the Duke of Yorke being in the Sanctuary at Weſtminſter; Richard, the then Protector, ſent the honeſt Lord Cardinall to the Queene, for the deliuery of the ſaide Duke of Yorke out of the Sanctuary; who by his ſweet and poyſoned words, and proteſtations to his Mother, that it wold be for all their good to deliuer him: This yong Prince was deliuered, and brought to the King his Brother, in the Biſhops Pallace of London, and from thence conuayed to the Tower of London, with ſhew of preparation for the day of Coronation; where they remained ſome two months. At which time, the ſaide Protectour ſent one Greene (a truſty ſeruant of his) vnto Sir Robert Brakenbury, then Conſtable of the Tower, to murder the ſaid two Princes; who ſtoutly denying to doe ſo foule an acte, Sir Iames Tirrell, a ſeruant of the ſaid Protectors, was ſent to Brakenbury the day after, to haue the keyes of the Tower, and cuſtody of thoſe two Infants deliuered to him. Which being done accordingly, the young King and his brother were ſhut vp together, and al company remoued from them, ſauing that miſcreant dog, that was to execute that bloody and butcherly acte; who about midnight, brought a rout of Runnagates into their Chamber, who ſuddenly lapping them vp amongſt the cloaths of their bed, ſmothered theſe two ſweete Babes, the Lords Annointed.

This young King, was at his Fathers death, eleuen yeares, fiue moneths, & fiue dayes old.

King Richard the Third.

Richard the third, borne at Fotheringhay Caſtle in Northamptonſhire, third ſonne of Richard Duke of Yorke, and brother to King Edward the fourth, Lord Protector, and murderer of king Edward the fift his Nephew: And (by common report) a monſter in nature; for hee had many teeth when he was borne. He was very much deformed of his body; of ſtature he was but low, croocke-backed, his left ſhoulder much higher then the right, his viſage vncomely, his complection ſwart, his left arme withered almoſt to the bone. He made his conſcience in all things to ſerue his will, though his will could not be obtained, without the effuſion of guiltleſſe blood. He was ſo cunning a diſſembler, that he would accompany (moſt familiarly) with ſuch as inwardly he hated in his heart. He ſpared no mans death, whoſe life reſiſted his vngodly purpoſes.

This Richard, was honored with the Title of Gloceſter, a title and name euer ominous, all of them dying violent and vntimely deaths: which hee regarded not, his deſtiny enforcing, his aſpiring minde gaue him no reſt, vntill his reſtleſſe body found it laſtly in the graue. He was ſlaine at a battaile fought at Redmore neere Boſworth, the 22. of Auguſt, 1485. when he had reigned two yeares, two moneths, and fiue dayes.

The ſlaine body, all tugged and torne, naked, and not ſo much as a clout left to couer his ſhame, was truſſed behind Blanch Sengler, his Purſuiuant of Arms, like a Hog or Calfe, his head and armes hanging on the one ſide of the horſe, & his legs on the other ſide, all beſprinkled with mire and blood, & was ſo broght to Leiceſter, and there for a miſerable ſpectacle, the ſpace of two daies lay naked and vnburied: his remembrance being as odious to all, as his perſon deformed and loathſome to be looked vpon. Laſtly, his body was buried at Leiceſter, without any Funerall pompe. He married Anne, ſecond daughter and co-heyre of Richard Neuill, Earle of Warwicke and Salisbury, and had iſſue, Edward their onely childe, created by King Edward the fourth, Earle of Salisbury, and by his Father, Prince of Wales, as in the Earles of Salisbury is ſet foorth.

IOhn Courtney, begotte of Eleanor daughter of Hugh Spencer Earle of Winchester, Hugh Courtney, whom King Edward the third made Earle of Deuonſhire. Mil. pag. 459.

HEere Eleanor Spencer, is made to bee mother to Hugh Earle of Deuonſhire, when as in truth ſhe was his wife.

IN the yeare 1546. the Duke of Norfolke and his ſonne the Earle of Surrey were ſodainly apprehended, and ſent to the Tower of London for bearing in their Eſcochion certaine Armes, which were pretended onely to belong vnto the King, which Armes notwithstanding, they and their Ancestors time out of minde hadde borne, without checke or controulement. For this offence was the said Earle endited, &c.

HAd not this Writer beene a little too bold and buſie, in matters of Armes and Herauldry (wherein hee hath ſhewed himſelfe very ignorant) he would neuer haue put this in Print.

Martin pag. 419.

I wish him therefore to know, that the honourable Family of the Howards he speaketh of, may, and doe lawfully beare, and quarter, the Armes of Thomas of Brotherton the Kings son; but not the king of Englands Armes. Therfore I would haue M. Martyn to know, that those Armes he mentioneth, did want a lambell for the difference; the neglect whereof, made it the Kinges Armes, and not Tho: of Brothertons.

EDward Fynes, Lord Clynton created Earle of Lincolne, 1572.
Henry Fynes, Earle of Lincolne.
Mil. pag. 950. & 952.

THere was neuer any of the Family or name of Fynes Earl of Lincoln, to this time, 1618. But the trueth is, there was one Edw: Clynton, that was created Earle of Lincolne, in the yeare 1572. which I take to be the person he meaneth.

WIlliam, Brother of Malcome king of Scottes, married Ermingard, daughter of Richard de Beaumont, at Woodstocke, in the Kings Chappell, the 33 yeare of King Henry the second, and dyed in the yeare 1124. the 27. yeare of his age.
Milles pag. 909.

THis William is made to marrie this Ermingard his wife at Woodstock 62. yeares after he was dead: For the 33. of King Henry the second, is 1186. and the yeare of his death, as he sayth, is 1124.

KIng Iohn left behinde him four sons, viz. Henry who succeeded him, Richard who was elected K. of the Romans; William of Valence, and Guido Disnay: and three daughters, the second was married to William Marshall, Earle of Worcester, &c.
Martyn, pag. 59, 60.

KIng Iohn had but two sonnes, and none named William of Valence, or Guy de Disnay, for they wer the sons of Hugh le Brun, Earle of the Marches of Aquitaine, and not king Iohns: and that William Marshal was Earle of Worcester is as vntrue, as the other; for hee was onely Earle of Penbroke, and not of Worcester.

RObert de Bellemont, Earl of Mellent, married Matild, daughter and one of the heires of Reginald earl of Cornwall, sonne of King Iohn.
Mil. pag. 830.

FRom the beginning of the reigne of King Henry the first, to King Iohn, was 98. yeares, and so far wide is this Author from the truth. For this Reginald he mentioneth, was base sonne of King Henry the first, and not of King Iohn.

MIchaell de la Pole (ſonne and heire of Michaell, and Katherine Stafford) married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Mowbray Duke of Norffolk, & had iſſue three daughters; Iſabell, wife to the Lord Morley, Katherine a Nunne, and Elizabeth Counteſſe of Kendall.

*Mil.pag.*535.

THis Michael de la Pole, whom hee ſayth had iſſue 3. Daughters, dyed at Egencourt fielde in Fraunce, 1415. without any iſſue at all. And this Iſabell, Katherine, and Elizabeth, Counteſſe of Kendall, were his three ſiſters, both by Father and Mother, and not his daughters.

THomas Earle of Arundell, married Conſtance, Daughter of Edmond of Langley, Duke of Yorke, and had yſſue, Anne married to Hugh de Audley, who had iſſue Iames.

Mil.pag. 347.

THis Thomas Earle of Arundel, neuer had any ſuch Daughter, named Anne, but dyed the third of King Henry the fift, without any iſſue at all. Neither was there euer any ſuch Hugh Audley, that euer married anie ſuch Woman.

RObert, baſe ſon of King Henrie the firſt, was the firſt Earle of Glocester, and married Mabell Daughter of Robert Fitz Hamon, and Sibel his Wife, daughter of Robert de Beleſmo, Earle of Shrewsbury.

After this Roberts death, Mabell his wife, married Nigell, Lord and Baron of Mowbray.

Robert Fitz-Haman, neuer married any Sibill, daughter of Robert de Beleſmo. For Robert de Beleſmo had his eyes put out, and dyed in the Caſtle of Kardiffe in Wales, without any iſſue: And for Mabell the daughter of Robert Fitz-Hamon, ſhee neuer married Nigell Lord Mowbray, for that Mabell he married, was daughter and coheyre of William Fitz Patrich, Earle of Salisbury, who had giuen her in Marriage, the Mannor of Banſted in Surrey, as is manifeſted by the ſaid Grant.

ISabell, daughter of Gilbert de Clare, Earle of Hertford, married William L. Bruſe of Gower in Wales.
Milles pag. 369.

THis Iſabell, married Robert Brus of Annanderdale in Scotland, and not William Bruſe of Wales, and ſo both the man, and the matter, quite miſtaken.

ISabel daughter of William king of Scots married Robert Lord Ros of Hamlake, Father of Robert Lord Ros, father of William Lord Ros, Competitor for the crown of Scotland.
Mil. pag. 507.

ROBert Lord Ros, that married Iſabell daughter of William King of Scots, had iſſue William L. Ros, who had iſſue, Robert Lord Ros of Hamlake, Father of another William, that was one of the Competitors for the Crowne of Scotland. So ỳ the firſt William L. Ros is quite left out, and by that means the ſecond Robert is left without a father.

ROBert de Valonijs, Lord of Orford married Cicely, ſiſter of william Blound, and had iſſue Cicely de Valoniis wife to Robert Vfford, ſteward of the houſhold to King Edward the ſecond.
Milles, pag. 528.

ROBert de Valoniis, which marryed the Siſter of William Blound, had iſſue a ſonne Robert, who was Father of Cicely de Valoniis wife to Robert Vfford: So that, the right Father of Cicely Valonijs that married Robert Vfford is quite left out, and not once mentioned, and Robert de Valonijs & Cicely Blound, who was her Grand-father and Grand-mother, made to be her father & mother.

MArgaret, daughter of Sir Iohn Norwich Knight, and ſiſter and heyre of Thomas Norwich, was wife to Robert Vfford Earle of Suffolke.
Mil. pag. 529.

THis Margaret, was Siſter of Sir Walter Norwich Knight, and Aunt and heyre to Iohn Norwich, ſon of the ſayde Sir Walter. So that this diſcent, is out of ioynt, and greatly miſtaken.

NOw ſurely, I haue not read of any ſo olde ſince Chriſts time. For, by this accompt of 1227. and 1572. this Richard liued after his being Earl, 345. yeares. And then was hee a verie olde man indeed.

Milles pag. 588, 589.

HEre is Howell, Bertha, & Conſtance, made to be Children to Alan Fargant, when as they were the children of Conan le Groſſe Earle of Britaine, and ſo they fathered vpon a wrong father.

WIlliam the firſt Earle Warren & Surrey, married Gundred, daughter of William Conqueror, and had iſſue William and Reginald, who marryed Adeliza, Ladie of Wirmingay in Norfolk, and had iſſue William de Warren.

Reginald de Warren, mentioned in this place, is made to haue two ſeuerall Fathers and Mothers, as by this aforeſaid it may appeare; but the firſt is falſe. His true Father was William the ſecond Earle Warren, and his mother was Iſabel, Siſter of Rafe de Peronne, Earle of Vermandois.

WIlliam the ſecond Earle Warren and Surrey, ſonne of William the firſt, married Iſabel, daughter of Hugh the great Earle of Vermandois, and had yſſue, William the third Earle Warren, & Reginald de Warren, who married Adeliza daughter of William de Wormegay, and had iſſue, William.

Mil. pag. 642, 643.

THere was neuer any Hugh Meſchines Earle of Cheſter (ſurnamed Blundeuile) nor any Mabell his Siſter. But the trueth is, there was a Mabell, which was Siſter and Co-heire of Randoll Blundeuile Earle of Cheſter.

IT is true, that this Iſabell married Iohn Fitz Alan, and had iſſue Iohn, who married Iohn Fitz Alan, Lord of Clun and Oſwaldtre; by whoſe right, the Caſtle and honour of Arundell came to the Fitz Alans. Their ſonne Iohn Fitz Alan, was Father of Richard firſt Earle of Arundel of that Family.

who by Mauld Verdon his wife, had iſſue a third Iohn, who marryed Iſabell Mortimer, and had yſſue Richard the firſt Earle of Arundel, which thirde Iohn is omitted, and ſo the ſayde Richards Grandfather made to be his father.

HEnry Percy the ninth Earle of Northumberland, Lord Percy, Lucy, Poynings, Fitz-Payne, and Brian, and in his mothers right, Lord Latymer.

Milles pag. 734.

HOw this Henry Earl of Northumberland, can be Lord Latymer in right of his Mother, is more then by my reading I could euer finde any proofe for.

For I take it, that all Daughters and heyrs of a Baron by Writ (be they neuer ſo many) are all intereſſed alike by their birth, to their Fathers Dignitie; which Dignity by nó meanes can bee diuided, & therefore loſt (when there is more Daughters then one) and to reuert to the King frō whence it came, to beſtow vppon which daughter hee will, or other ſtranger, whomſoeuer it ſhall pleaſe him.

LOra daughter of William Bruſe Baron of Brecknocke, wife vnto Robert Fitz Pernell Earle of Leiceſter, and Siſter of that William Bruſe, who was commonly called Earle of Brember Caſtle in Suſſex, & Lord of Brecknock and Abergauenny, ſhe left fiue daughters her heirs, Iſabel, Ela, Mauld, Eua, and Eleanor.

Mil. pag. 836.

IT is true that this Lora did marry Robert Fitz Pernel, Earle of Leiceſter. But that ſhe had fiue daughters, is very vntrue: for the ſaide Robert died without yſſue. And thoſe fiue Daughters heere mentioned, were the Daughters of William Lord Bruſe of Brecknocke, begotten of Eua his Wife, one of the daughters of William Marſhall, the elder Earle of Penbrooke. So that this Lora was their great Aunt, & not their mother.

Milles page 1099.

HOw could Margaret, daughter of King Edward the third, be mother of John Haſtings the third Earl of Penbroke, when as at the ſaid Johns death, he ſayth; that Anne Manny his Fathers ſecond wife was great with Childe of him, except he proue that he had two Mothers.

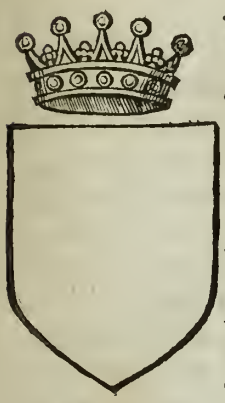
This William with Reginald de Warren, conducted Mauld the daughter of King Henry the ſecond into Saxony, to be married to Duke Henrie, after Emperour, Anno one thouſand one hundred three ſcore and eight. He founded the Priorie of Buckenham, and died at Wauerley in the third yeare of the reigne of King Henry the ſecond, and was buried in the Priorie of Wimondham by his Father, leauing iſſue two Sonnes and a Daughter, that is to ſay, William, Godfrey, and Alice, who was married to Iohn Earle of Angie. I finde written of this William, that at a Iuſts held at Paris he behaued himſelfe ſo valiantly, that the Queene Dowager of Fraunce fell in loue with him, and deſired him in marriage, which he refuſed ſaying, that he before that, had giuen his word and faith vnto another Ladie in England; which denyall the ſayde Queene tooke in euill part, part, and thereupon practized to get him into a Caue in her garden, where ſhe had cauſed a Lion to be put to deuoure him, which when he ſawe, hee fiercely ſet vpon him, thruſting his arme into the Lions mouth, pulling out his tongue; which done, he conueyed himſelfe into England, and performed his promiſe to Queene Ælidis 1135. In token of which noble and valiant acte, this William aſſumed to beare for his Armes, a Lion gold in a field gueules, which his ſucceſſors euer ſince haue continued.



William de Albeneio the ſecond of that Name, Earle of Arundell, ſonne and heire of William aforeſaide by Queene Ælidis, was alwayes faithfull to King Henry the ſecond, and euer ayded him againſt King Henry his ſonne: he tooke priſoners at the battaile fought at Saint Edmundsburie, 1173. Robert Earle of Leiceſter, Hugh Earle of Cheſter, and Hugh de Chaſteles a Frenchman with diuers others, and ſent them into Normandie to King Henry the ſecond, who impriſoned them in the Caſtle of Faloys; He married Mauld daughter and heire of Iames Santo Hillary (the widow of Roger Earle of Clare) and had iſſue William Earle of Arundell and Suſſex, and Alan, who had iſſue William which kept the Caſtle of Rocheſter againſt King John; this William died in the yeare 1177. and twenty fourth yeare of Henry the ſecond beyond the Sea, and was brought into England, and buried at Wymondham.

Heere would I gladly be informed of the Error which M. Camden in his Britannia, Page 309. hath ſet downe, concerning the Earledome of Arundell; which is, that whoſoeuer is ſeiſed of the Caſtle & Lordſhip of Arundel in his Demeſme as of Fee, is immediately Earle of Arundel, without either Creation, Letters Patents, or other Ceremony to be vſed. A thing greatly to be maruailed at, & therfore for my better vnderſtading, wold gladly know his reaſon how that may be; when this Richards father, Grand- and great Grandfather (three Iohns) were not euer ranked amongſt the other Earles of Arundell, in fifty fiue yeares together (for ſo long was it betweene the death of Hugh de Albeney, and this Richards comming to be Earle of Arundell) they being all ſeized of the Caſtle and Lordſhip of Arundell, and yet neuer any of them Earles thereof. For thoſe authorities he there mentioneth, they proue not that, for which hee auoucheth them for.

EDmund Fitz-Alan, ſecond Earle of Arundell of that ſurname, was alſo Lord of Clun and Oſwaldeſtre, and married Alice Daughter of William, and Siſter and heire of Iohn Earle Warren and Surrey, by whom he had iſſue, a ſonne named Richard, and two daughters, viz. Alice married to Iohn de Bohun, Earle of Hereford and Eſſex, and Conſtable of England; Iane married to Warryn Lord Liſle. This Edmund was borne in the Caſtle of Malborough: hee was verie hatefull to Q. Iſabell, who by the means of her Minion Roger Lord Mortimer, was taken at Shrewsbury, and brought to Hereford, and there beheaded, in the twentieth yeare of King Edward the ſecond.

This Robert haue I made to be Earle of Kyme (vpon the credit of Claurenciux Cooke) and yet do I greatly doubt therof, for that I cannot euer finde any of that Name and Family to ſitte in Parliament after the laſt Earle Gilbert (in the fourth yeare of King Richard the ſecond) brother of this Robert. This deſcent of Vmfreuile is diuerſly ſet forth by ſundry perſons, who haue made many heyres male to the laſt Gilbert more then I can finde any good proofe for. Therefore for the better cleering thereof, take this out of the Kings Records: Gilbert the laſt Earl of Anguiſh, with Mauld Lucy his wife, did entaile diuers lands to themſelues, and the heyres of their two bodies: and for default thereof, to Robert his brother, and to the heirs male of his body: and for default thereof, to Thomas Vmfreuile his third Brother, and to the heires male of his body: and for default thereof, the remainder to Elizabeth (or Elionor) his Siſter, wife of Gilbert Borrowdon, and the heires of their two bodyes: and that Elionor the wife of Henry Talboys is daughter and heire of Gilbert Borrowdon, and Neece and heire of the ſaide laſt Earle Gilbert, and is forty yeares of age.

He married one Berta, and had iſſue, Eugenulphus, William, and Robert; and two daughters, Gundred, and Emelyn. He founded the Abbey of Tutbury, in the yeare, 1080. Vnto which Foundation, were Witneſſes Eugenulphus, William, & Robert his ſonnes. And for proofe that this Henry was an Earle, (which ſome great and late Writers denie) I haue heere ſet downe the ſaid Henries Epitath, which I finde printed in the yeare, 1577. and dedicated to the late Earle of Eſſex, and ſaid to be found in the Abbey of Tutbury.

Hic iacet Henricus de Ferrarijs comes, huius Eccleſiæ fundator Imago, nomine cuius Anno milleno domini quater atq; viceno Tutburiæq; nono domus eſt fundata patrono. It is ſaid that he bare for his Armes, argent. 6 horſe-ſhooes ſable.

RObert de Ferrars, after the death of Henry his Father, and Eugenulphus and William his two Brothers, without iſſue, was the ſecond Earle Ferrars, and by that name was Witneſſe to king Henry the firſt his Charter, of lands which he gaue to the Abbey of Tutesbury. Alſo in the 31. yeare of the ſaid kings Reigne, hee began the Foundation of the Abbey of Muriuall, and dyed in the 19. yeare of king Stephen, and was buried at Muriuall, leauing iſſue, William Earle of Tutesbury, ſlaine in his lodging in London, without iſſue; Robert Earle Ferrars, and Wakelyn de Ferrars the third ſonne, Les armes de ſon pere, d'argent à ſix Ferres de cheuall de ſable.

ROBERT de Ferrars, the ſecond of that name, after the death of Robert his Father, and William his brother, was the third Earle Ferrars, whom diuers late Writers haue greatly miſtaken, they affirming him to be the firſt Robert, Founder of Muriuall Abbey, and to be Earle of Nottingham; when as in truth, it was this Roberts Father, that was Founder of Muriuall Abbey, and another Robert Ferrars, grand-childe of this ſecond Robert by his ſonne William, that was made Earle of Nottingham, as heereafter will appeare in his due place.

And where they ſay they haue ſeen Deeds and Charters, to approue their affirmation, it is vntrue; for thoſe they meane, are vnperfect Notes and Abſtracts, taken out of Glouer Somerſets Booke of Miſcellania; which Book I haue, and peruſing the ſame, finde them of ſmall credite. This Earle Robert married, and had iſſue, William Earle Ferrars, the fourth Earle Ferrars; and died in the yeare, 1184. the 31. of king Henry the ſecond: but others haue, that he dyed in the Holy-Land, in the yeare, 1190. the ſecond of king Richard the firſt, which is miſtaken.

Now to the iſſue, which M. Milles maketh this Robert to haue, in his Booke of ſucceſſion of Earles, pag. 869. viz. William de Ferrars Earle of Derby. Petronell (or Pernell) wife of Henry Lord Stafford; and Elizabeth married vnto William Marſhall Baron of Rie: I confeſſe William onely, but no daughters at all. For by a Record of the 26. of King Henry the 3. it is proued, that Henry Lord Staffords wifes name was Mabell, daughter of Robert Muſegros and Agnes his wife, daughter of William Earle Ferrars and Derby, great grand-ſonne of Robert Ferrars Earle of Nottingham, which Milles ſaith, died in the holy-land, 1190. And for Elizabeeh the other daughter, to be married to William Marſchall, Baron of Rye and Hengham in Norfolko, which died, 1266. that is moſt vntrue; for that William hee meaneth, had to his wife Alina, daughter and heire of Hubert, Baron of Rye, and died in the 11. yeare of king Edward the firſt, as by an Inquiſition of that date it doth appeare.

WILLIAM Earle Ferrars, Lord of Tutbury in Staffordſhire, and Oucume in Rutlandſhire, ſonne of the ſecond Robert Earle Ferrars, married Margaret, daughter and heire of William Peuerill of Nottingham, (whoſe grand-father William was the baſe ſonne of William Conqueror, begotten of the wife of Randolphe Peuerell of Hatfield Peuerell) and had iſſue, Robert and William: Robert the eldeſt ſonne in the life time of his Father, was made Earle of Nottingham, and dyed without iſſue. William the ſecond ſonne, after the death of his Father was Earle Ferrars, and firſt Earle of Derby. This William Earle Ferrars the Father, dyed (as Roger Houedon hath, Fol. 390. b.) at Achon in the Holy-Land, in the yeare, 1190. But Milles (in Glouer Somerſets Booke of ſucceſſions of Earles, pag. 870.) hath, that he dyed in the yeare, 1247. and Margaret his wife to dye in the ſame year, the 32. of king Henry the third, which I doubt of.

This Iohn, Marqueſſe Mountague, and George Duke of Bedford, his ſonne, were by Acte of Parliament, the 17. of Edward the 4. degraded of all honourable Titles, in theſe words.

Where afore this time, the King our Soueraigne Lord, for the great zeale and loue he bare to Iohn Neuill, late named Marqueſſe Mountague, and other conſiderations him mouing, did erect and make George Neuill, the eldeſt ſonne of the ſaide Marqueſſe, to bee Duke of Bedford; and at that time, for the great loue his ſaide Highneſſe bare to the ſaide Iohn Neuill, purpoſed and intended to haue giuen to the ſaide George, for ſuſtentation of the ſame dignity, ſufficient life-lode: And for the great offences, vnkindneſſe, and miſ-behauing that the ſaide Iohn Neuill hath done and committed to his ſaide Highneſſe, as is openly knowne, he hath not cauſe to depart any life-lode to the ſaide George. And foraſmuch, as it is openly knowne, that the ſaide George hath not, nor by inheritance may haue any life-lode, to ſupport the ſaide Name, Eſtate, and Dignity, or any name of Eſtate. And oft-times it is ſeene, that when any Lord is called to high Eſtate, and hath not life-lode conueniently to ſupport the ſaide Dignity, it induces great pouerty and indigence, and cauſes oft-times great extortion, embracery, and maintenance to be had, to the great trouble of all ſuch countries, where ſuch eſtate ſhall hap to be inhabited. Wherefore, the King, by the aduice and aſſent of his Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that from henceforth, the ſaide Erection and making of Duke, and all the names of Dignity, giuen to the ſaide George, or to the ſaide Iohn Neuill his Father, be from hence-forth voide, and of no effect. And that the ſaid George & his heires, from hence-forth be no Dukes, nor Marqueſſe, Earle, nor Baron, for no erection, or creation afore made; but of that name of Duke, and Marqueſſe, Earle, and Baron, in him and his heires ceaſſe, and be voide, and of none effect; the ſaide Erection or Creation notwithſtanding. This haue I thought good to mention heere, that Noblemen and others may be warned, how they ſell and conſume their auncient Liuings and Patrimonies, left them by their Anceſtors; leaſt wanting where-withall to maintaine their Eſtates, the King degrade and diſable them from bearing any honorable Title, as he did theſe two Noblemen, the Father and the Sonne.

VV*Alcher*, Biſhoppe of Durham, borne in Loraine, bought of William Conquerour, the Earledome of Northumberland, and for a time was Earle thereof, after the death of Waltheof. He was a proud and an inſolent Prelate, couetous and rich, & was ſlaine by the Commons at Goatshead, on the Riuer of Tyne, 1079. for denying to do them Iuſtice, vnleſſe they would firſt pay vnto him, foure hundred pounds of currant money; as Mathew Paris, more at large ſetteth downe. I pray God wee haue no ſuch Biſhops Iuſticers in this our age; for the ſaid Mathew further ſaith, That there were aboue a hundreth perſons ſlaine about this matter.

R*Obert Mowbray*, an honourable Engliſhman, after the death of Walcher, obtayned of William Conqueror the earledome of Northumberland. And after, hauing ſlaine Malcolme king of Scots, and his ſonne, neere to Anwike, in the yeare, 1092. demanded reward for the ſame; which beeing neglected, he was ſo moued, that when king William Ruphus ſent his Letters for him, he denyed not only to come to him, but combyned with diuers other Noblemen of the Realme, how to depriue the ſaid King of his Crowne; which being reuealed, he was driuen to flye to the Monaſtery of S.Owin, from whence hee was taken by force, and carried to priſon, and and after, by the Kings Commandement, was brought before his owne Caſtle of Bamborough, and there willed to haue his eyes put out, vnleſſe his Wife, and Moreall her kineſman (who were within the ſaide Caſtle) would yeeld vp the ſame; which being ſurrendred, this Robert was ſent to be impriſoned in the Caſtle of Windeſore, 1096. (Houeden, fol. 267.) During which time, king William Ruphus held the Earledome of Northumberland in his owne hands, and diſinherited all the ſaid Roberts Progeny. He was after ſhorne a Monke at S. Albons, where he dyed, the ſeuenth of king Henry the firſt, 1106. The moſt of his honours and lands, were giuen to Lord Nigell de Albeney, Chamberlaine to King William Ruphus, for his good ſeruice, done at the battaile of Tenarch-bray, where he ſlew the horſe of Robert Duke of Normandy, tooke him priſoner, & brought him into England, and there deliuered him to the king his brother, who ſent him to priſon, to the Caſtle of Cairdiffe in South-Wales, where he had both his eyes put out, and pined to death with ſorrow, in the 35. yeare of king Henry the firſt; and was buried at Glocester.

RAphe de Waiet, a Britaine borne, was by the guift of William the Conquerour, the firſt Earle of the Eaſt Angles, (that is to ſay, Norfolke, Suffolke, and Cambridgſhire) and gaping after an alteration and change in the State, was diſpoſſeſſed of that Honour and Title, in the ninth yeare of the ſaid Kings Reigne, for conſpiring to expell him out of England; which was done at the marriage of this Raphe, with Emme, the daughter of William Fitz-Osberne, Earle of Hereford, and Marſhall of England, and ſiſter to William de Britolio Earle of Iuory, and Roger Earle of Hereford. There was in this conſpiracy, Waltheof the great Earle of Northumberland, diuers Biſhops, Abbots, and Barons: all which, by the Arch-Biſhop Lanfrake, were made knowne to William Conqueror, he being then in Normandy, which cauſed him with all ſpeed to returne into England, and apprehending the ſaid Waltheof, and Roger Earle of Hereford; Waltheof was beheaded at Wincheſter, and Roger had his eyes put out, and was kept in priſon during his life. This Raphe de Waiet, keeping the Caſtle of Norwich, againſt the loyalty of William the firſt, was driuen out of England, and went with his wife to Ieruſalem; leauing behinde him one daughter named Itta, who married Robert Earle of Leiceſter, in Anno, 1103.

ROger Bigot, Earle of the Eaſt Angles or Norfolke, the ſecond of that ſur-name, in the yeare, 1215. with diuers other Noblemen of the Realme, did require of King Iohn, to haue the auncient Lawes of S. Edward the Confeſſor, renewed and confirmed vnto them; which being denyed, they put themſelues into Armes, & ſent for Lewis (Philip) the French Kings ſonne, promiſing to make him King of England. At whoſe requeſt he came, and landed in the Iſle of Thanet in Kent, the 21. day of May, 1216. and comming to London, there had fealty ſworne vnto him by the ſaid Noblemen. So that through all England, was nothing but killing and firing, vntill it chanced, the Viſcount of Melyn, a Nobleman of France (which came with Lewis into England) to fall very ſicke in the Citty of London; who feeling death to approach, called vnto him certaine of the Barons of England, vnto whom he vttered theſe words. I am ſorry (ſaid he) Brethren, for your ſubuerſion and deſolation, whereof you are ignorant; For Lewis, and ſixteene of the Earles and Barons with him, haue ſworne, that if it be his chance to ſubdue England, and to be crowned King, hee would baniſh out of the Realme, all thoſe Noblemen which now take his part, as Traytors to their King. A little while after, King Iohn dyed, and Henry his ſonne became King, and made an agreement with his Nobles, whereby Lewis was faine to abandon and leaue England, and goe into France backe againe.

This Roger, married Iſabell, daughter of Hamelyn Plantagenet, (baſe ſonne of Geffrey Plantagenet, Earle of Anioye) Earle Warren and Surrey, and had iſſue, Hugh Bigot Earle of Norfolke, and others. He dyed, and was buried at Thetford.

Which I greatly maruaile at, conſidering, that both the ſaide* Hugh, and Roger his Father, did vſe and beare in their Shields and Seales, a plaine Croſſe, which is grauen in ſtone, and painted on the North-ſide of the Cathedrall (or Minſter) at Weſtminſter, in the time of king Henry the third, with many other Noblemens Armes, who liued in that time. And further I ſpeake of my owne knowledge, that neuer any of this Noble Family of Bigots, did euer giue other Coate of Armes, then Gold, a Croſſe Gueulles, before they married with Marſhals daughter, and were Marſhals of England: At which time, they did aſſume and take a Coate, vſed by William Marſhall Earle of Penbroke and his ſonnes (who were Marſhals of England) for the Office of Marſhall; which was party per pale Or, and Verte, a Lyon rampant gueulles. And thus much haue I thought good heere to mention, becauſe I ſee in diuers Noblemens Armes, (who are deſcended of the ſaide Bigots) this deuiſed Armes, in ſtead of the true and right Coate of Bigot.

ROger Bigot, ſonne and heyre of Hugh and Mauld Marſhall, was the 4. Earle of Norfolke, and firſt Marſhall of England of that Family. To this Roger, was granted the Marſhalſhip of England by Mauld his Mother, preſently after the death of Anſelme Marſhall Earle of Penbroke, (the fift and youngeſt ſonne of william Marſhall the elder, Earle of Penbroke, and Marſhall of England, about the 31. yeare of king Henry the third) And at the Coronation of Queene Elianor, wife of king Henry the third, he made his claime, to execute the Office of high Steward of England (which hee claymed in right of Adeliza his great Grand-mother, daughter and co-heyre of Hugh Grenmeſnell, high Steward of England) Which was gain-ſaide by Simon Mountfort Earle of Leiceſter; for that it was alleadged by the ſaide Simon, that at the Coronation of king Iohn, there was an agreement made betweene their Aunceſtors, viz. That Robert Earle of Leiceſters Aunceſtor, ſhould pay and giue vnto Roger Bigots Aunceſtor, ten knights Fees for the ſame; of which, there were but ſeuen and a halfe paide. Which variance, the King tooke into his owne hands, and adiudged Simon Mountfort to execute the Office of high Steward; and that Roger Bigot ſhould bring his Action for the other two Knights Fees and a halfe, remaining vnpaid.

This Roger married Iſabell, daughter of William king of Seots, and ſiſter of king Alexander; and dyed of a bruiſe, running at Tilt, without iſſue, Anno, 1269. Leauing Roger his Nephew (ſonne of Hugh his Brother) to ſucceede him in his Earledome.

ROger Bigot, the fift Earle of Norfolke of that Family, and Marſhall of England, Nephew to Roger the fourth Earle of Norfolke, by Hugh Bigot Chiefe-Iuſtice of England his brother. This Roger Bigot, Gilbert de Clare Earle of Gloceſter, and Humfrey de Bohun Earle of Hereford and Conſtable of England, were commanded by king Edward the firſt, to goe with him into Aquitaine, to the ayde of Guy Earle of Flanders, (whom Charles the brother of Philip king of France, had at S. Omers in France, a little before ouercome in ſingle combate) which they denyed, except he would put in vſe, and reſtore to his Subiects, the lawes of Magna Carta; which the ſaid king refuſed to doe; and going on his iourney without them, to the ayde of the ſaid Guy againſt the French King; at his returne backe againe (for puniſhment of theſe Noblemens contempt) firſt hee cauſed Gilbert de Clare Earle of Gloceſter, Glocester, to marry Ioane of Acres, the ſaid Kings daughter, without any dowry: And Humfrey de Bohun Earle of Hereford, to marry Elizabeth, the widdow of Iohn Earle of Holland, another of the ſaid Kings daughters, with the like conditions. And that this Roger Bigot Earle of Norfolke, ſhould ſurrender and deliuer vp into the Kings hands, all his lands in England, Wales and Ireland, with the Office of Marſhall of England; reſeruing vnto himſelfe an eſtate for tearme of life, with a thouſand pound more encreaſe, which the ſaide King would allow him; with this prouiſo, that if the ſaide Roger had iſſue lawfully begotten, then he ſhould without all contradiction, receiue all from the ſaid King againe, with the encreaſe of 1000. pounds per annum from the King. He married two wiues, the firſt was Alyna, daughter of Philip Baſſet, and widdow of Hugh de Spencer, Iuſtice of England. His ſecond wife was Alice, daughter of Iohn de Auenne, Earle of Heynault, and dyed without iſſue, in the yeare, 1305. And by an Inquiſition taken the fourth of December, the 35. of king Edward the firſt, Iohn Bigot was found to be his Brother and heyre. After the death of this Roger Bigot, Earle of Norfolke, King Edward the firſt, did giue the Office of the Marſhalſhip of England, to Thomas of Brotherton his ſecond ſonne; whom king Edward the ſecond did create Earle of Norfolke.

RIchard Marſhall, ſecond ſonne of William Marſhall the elder, who after the death of William his Brother, the 5. Earle of Penbroke, and Marſhall of England, Lord of Longeuile in France, Strighull, Chepſtow, and Caerwent, &c. did giue to the Church of S. Maries of Thame, certaine Woods in Crendon, to pray for his owne ſoule, and Geruaſia his Wife; (and as Mathew Paris hath) when king Henry the third did, vpon the ſuggeſtion of Peter Biſhop of Wincheſter, remoue all his home-bred Subiects from their Offices in his Court, and preferre certaine ſtrangers of Poictiers in their roomes; this Richard not liking thereof, came boldly vnto the King, in the preſence of many the Nobility & others, and tolde him, that by ill counſell he had ſent for ſtrangers into the Land, to the great hurt of his kingdome and ſubiects, to the impeachment of the Lawes and Liberties of this Realme. For redreſſe whereof, he vowed he would fight ſo long as hee had any life; and thereupon ioyned league with Luellyn Prince of Wales & others. But whileſt the King was buſied in leuying an Army, to ſend againſt him and Luellyn, word was brought to this Richard, that Morice Fitz-Gerald and other Iriſh, had ſacked his Countries and Lands in Ireland. Vpon the hearing whereof, he haſted thether with fifteene Knights, to encounter with his enemies; and ioyned battaile with them vpon Satterday the firſt of Aprill, 1234. and fought eleuen houres, vntill his horſe was ſlaine vnder him. And he then falling to the ground, one of the Iriſh perceiuing his backe part ill armed, lifted vp his habergeō, & thruſt a knife into his backe vp to the haft, giuing him his deadly wound, and then brought him to a Caſtle of his owne named Kilkenny, (which the ſaid Maurice Fitz-Gerald had taken a little before from him) where he dyed fifteene dayes after without iſſue, hauing beene Earle but three yeares. Hee was buried in the Quier of the Fryars Minories at Kilkenny, the 18. of King Henry the third.

WAlter Marſhall, fourth ſonne of William Marſhall the elder, with whom King Henry the third (after the death of his Brother Gilbert Marſhall) was greatly diſpleaſed, denying him thoſe Honours and Seigneuries belonging vnto him from his Auncestors, ſaying: That this Walters eldeſt Brother William, did reſcue Lewis the French Kings Son being in England, that he was not taken priſoner. Secondly, that his Brother Richard was his enemy, and was ſlaine in open field againſt him. And thirdly, that his brother Gilbert that dyed laſt, had all his dignities reſtored to him by the Kings fauour; and that (contrary to the ſaide Kings Commandement) he went to the Tilting at Hartford, which was held to the Kings diſgrace. But afterwards, the King being well pacified, this Walter was admitted to be Earle of Penbroke and Marſhall of England, and to haue all other the honours and lands his brothers held and enioyed before. He married Margaret, daughter and co-heyre of Robert Lord Quincy (ſonne and heyre of Saer de Quincy Earle of Winchester) widdow of Iohn Lacie Earle of Lincolne, by whom he had no iſſue. He dyed at Goderich Caſtle by Monmouth, the fourth of December, 1245. and was buried at Tyntearne Abbey without iſſue, in the 30. yeare of King Henry the third.

ANſelme Marſhall, the fift ſonne of William Marſhall the elder, was at the time of his Brother Walters death, Dean of Salisbury, and after admitted to be Earle of Penbroke, and Marſhall of England. He married Mauld, daughter of Humfrey de Bohun, Earle of Hereford and Conſtable of England, and dyed without iſſue, the 22. of December, being the 18. day after the death of his Brother Walter; leauing his rich Patrimony and Inheritance, to be diuided amongſt his fiue ſiſters and heyres before mentioned. I finde this Earledome of Penbroke in ancient time, to be a County Palatine, & had all Iuriſdiction Regall. And that the Earle had vnder him there, Iuſtices of his owne, a Shireiffe, Steward, Chancellour, Chamberlaine, Coroner, Eſcheter, and diuers other Officers, neceſſary for a Regal Iuriſdiction, all made and appointed by himſelfe. He had Seſſions, & County Courts Monethly, in which County Courts were tried all Real Pleas whatſoeuer, by originall Writ, vnder the Seale and Name of the ſaid Earle; all fynes were leuied, and recoueries paſſed, and all Writs made in the Earles name, (and not in the Kings) He had power to pardon all offences, and had his Chancery, court of Common Pleas, and Exchequer, holden within his Caſtle of Penbroke; whereunto all the Inhabitants of that Country reſorted, for iuſtice and triall of all their cauſes. He erected Townes, and incorporated them with many large and ample liberties. He had all manner of forfeitures and eſcheats whatſoeuer. He had within his County, 9. Caſtles of his owne, and 12. Seigneuries or Manors, nors, which were parcell of his County. The Iuriſdiction royall of this Earledome, remained and was permitted in the Earles themſelues, from the time of the Norman Conqueſt, vntill the 27. yeare of King Henry the 8. Whereas all other Earles of this Realme, had loſt their Iuriſdictions many hundred yeares before, and had but the bare names of their Earledomes. Alſo the ſaid Earles of Penbroke, by Office at the Coronations of the Kings of England, were to carry a paire of gilt Spurs. To end; this County is called Penbrokſhire, of the Towne ſo named; for the word Pen (in Welſh) ſignifieth the head or chiefe part of a thing; and Bro, ſignifieth a Vale or plaine ſoyle, fertile and fit to beare Corne, &c.

Iohn

IOhn Beaufort, ſonne of Iohn Earle of Somerſet, and grand-childe to Iohn of Gaunt (after the death of his Father, and his elder Brother Henry Earle of Somerſet) was created the firſt Duke of Somerſet, in the 21. yeare of king Henry the 6. He was taken priſoner before by the Duke of Orliance, at Bangie-Bridge in France, the ninth of the ſaide Kings Reigne, and deliuered vpon ranſome. He married Margaret, daughter of Sir Iohn Beauchampe of Bletſo knight, and ſiſter & heire of Iohn her Brother, by whom he had iſſue, one only daughter and heyre named Margaret, who by Edmond of Hadham Earle of Richmond her husband, had iſſue king Henry the ſeuenth. (Milles, pag. 398. ſaith) Edmond Beauford brother of this Iohn, ſucceeded him in his Dukedome of Somerſet, which was thought to be a great preiudice to Margaret, this Iohns daughter and heyre, if according to the olde cuſtome, when the male iſſue fayleth, the titles, honours and dignities ſhould not depend vpon the pleaſure of the King, to diſtribute the ſame to whō he pleaſeth. The which, in a word I anſwer thus, That if King Henry the fift did giue the Dukedome of Somerſet to Iohn, the Father of this Margaret & his heyres male (as he did) and as commonly all Kings vſe to doe, when they giue the like honours: (This Iohn dying without iſſue male) what wrong doth the King to any, in giuing his owne, to whom and where he pleaſeth? and to ſpeake truely, I haue not ſeene but one Letters Patents otherwiſe, which was by King Henry the ſixt, 1458. to Iames Butler, who had the Earledome of Ormond to him and his heires male, and the Earledome of Wiltſhire to him and his heires generall. And this I hope ſhall be ſufficient, to proue that King Henry the ſixt did no wrong to this Margaret, in giuing her Fathers title of honour to his brother, nay, had he giuen it to a meere ſtranger, it had beene iuſtifiable. This Iohn dyed in the 24. yeare of king Henry the ſixt, and lyeth buried in Winborne Minſter in Dorſetſhire. Et portoit, les armes de ſon perè.

HVmfrey Stafford, ſonne of Edmond, was the ſixt Earle Stafford, whom king Henry the ſixt in the 23. yeare of his Reigne, created the firſt Duke of Buckingham, and gaue him place and precedence before all other Dukes of England. He writ in his Stile; Humfrey, Duke of Buckingham, Earle Stafford, Hereford and Northampton, Lord of Brecknock and Holderneſſe. This Humfrey in the eight yeare of king Henry the fift, did his homage at Roan, for the Earledome of Perch; and at the ſame time, Arthur Duke of Britaine did the like for the Earledome of Turye. He married Anne, daughter of Raphe Neuill firſt Earle of Weſtmerland, & had iſſue, Humfrey Earle Stafford, who married Margaret, ſiſter and co-heyre of Edmond Beaufort, Duke of of Somerset, and was wounded with an Arrow, at the first battaile at S. Albons, the 33. of Henry the sixt, of which wound he dyed the yeare after, in the life time of his Father, 1455. Iohn the second sonne, was created Earle of Wiltshire; and Richard the third sonne, was slaine with the fall from a horse; George & William were twins, and dyed both young: Anne the eldest daughter, was first married to Aubrey de Ver, sonne and heyre of Iohn Earle of Oxford, and had no issue; After she maried Sir Thomas Cobham knight, sonne of Reginald Lord Cobham of Sterborough, and had issue; Anne the second daughter, was first married to William Lord Bardolph, and after to Sir William Kniuet knight; and Katherine the third daughter, married Iohn Lord Talbot Earle of Shrewsbury. This Humfrey was slaine at the battaile of Northampton, in the 38. yeare of king Henry the 6. and his body buried in the Grey Fryers in Northampton. He bare for his Armes, France and England quarterly, within a bordure argent; which was the Armes of Thomas of Woodstocke, his Grand-father by his Mother.

HEnry Lord Stafford, (sonne and heyre of Humfrey Stafford, by Margaret his wife, sister and co-heire of Edmond Beaufort Duke of Somerset) grandchilde of Humfrey Stafford the first Duke of Buckingham, and Anne Neuill his wife; was after the death of his said Grandfather, the second Duke of Buckingham, Earle Stafford, Hereford and Northampton, Lord of Brecknock, Kimbalton and Tunbridge, and Knight of the Garter; who falling in dislike with king Richard the third; laboured the returne of Henry Earle of Richmond out of France. Diuers Authors diuersly report the cause thereof; but one amongst the rest saith, that Humfrey the tenth Earle of Hereford, Northampton, and Essex, and Constable of England, in king Richard the seconds time, had two daughters his heyres; Elianor the eldest, married to Thomas of Woodstocke Duke of Glocester; and Mary the second daughter, married to Henry Earle of Derby (after King, by the name of Henry the 4.) whose issue being spent and ended in Prince Edward, sonne of king Henry the 6, this Henry Stafford Duke of Buckingham, made clayme to that part of Humfrey de Bohuns Lands, which before were conueyed to Mary the second daughter (they being then in the Crowne) for that this Duke Henry was then the onely heyre both of Elianor and Mary. At which clayme and demand, King Richard the third was greatly offended, and saide; Will you (Duke Henry) challenge the right of king Henry the fourth, by which hee wrongfully held the Crowne, and so make way vnto it? Which speech of the king, went so neere to the Dukes heart, that euer after, he sought and plotted, how he might work the returne of Henry earle of Richmond out of France, and to depriue king Richard of his Crowne. And to effect the same, he raised diuers forces, and entred into Armes; which King Richard chard hearing of, leuied a greater, and went to Salisbury to meete him; but the Dukes Army being too weake, he was forced to flye for succour to the house of Humfrey Banister his seruant neere Shrewsbury, who for hope of gaine, betrayed him to Iohn Mitton Shireffe of Shropshire, who tooke and conuayed him to Salisbury, where without any arraignment or lawfull tryall, he was beheaded the second of Nouember, 1483. This Duke Henry married Katherine, sister and one of the heyres of Richard Wooduill Earle Riuers, and had issue, Edward Earle Stafford, and Duke of Buckingham, Henry Earle of Wiltshire, and Humfrey that died young. He had also two daughters, Elizabeth maried to Robert Radcliffe, Lord Fitz-Walter and Earle of Sussex; and Anne, first married to Sir Walter Herbert knight, and after to George Lord Hastings Earle of Huntington.

He was ſonne of Iohn Fitz-Alan, grand-childe of Iohn Fitz-Alan, & Iſabell his wife, ſecond ſiſter, and one of the heyres of Hugh de Albeney the laſt Earle of Arundell & Suſſex of that name; vnto which Iſabell, the Caſtle and Honour of Arundell fell by partition. Some late Writers haue ſet downe, that in reſpect the Family of Fitz-Alans had the Caſtle of Arundell, they were Earles of Arundell; which to me is very ſtrange, that a dead Stone, or Caſtle made of Stones and Timber, can giue an honour & title of dignity to a liuing creature. But this is contradicted and proued vntrue by many examples, where Noblemen haue ſolde the place whereof their Title of Honour was, and yet notwithſtanding, both they and their heyres haue retained their titles of honour ſtill, and can it be better manifeſted then in this very Family of Fitz-Alans? For had not this Richards Father, his Grand-father, and great Grand-father (all three Iohns) the poſſeſſion of the Caſtle of Arundell, with the appurtenances, and yet neuer any of them earles therof? &c. This Richard married Alſon, daughter of the Marqueſſe of Saluce in Italy, and had iſſue, Edmond Fitz-Alan Earle of Arundell, beheaded at Hereford, 1326. as is more at large in the Title of Earles of Arundell. A CATALOGVE OF THE Earles of Surrey, their Armes, Wiues, and Children.

WILLIAM de Warren, ſonne of William de Warren, a Norman, begotten of the daughter of Herfastus the Dane. This William, with Roger Mortimer his younger brother, came into England with William the Conqueror, whoſe daughter Gundred, the ſaide William married, and had giuen him in marriage with her, all Chirkland, Bromfield and Yale; and after was by the ſaid Conquerour made Earle of Surrey, and Lord of Dinasbrayne in Wales. He built the Caſtle of Holt, and founded the Priory of Lewis in Suſſex; and had iſſue by the Counteſſe Gundred his wife, William de Warren, the ſecond Earle of Surrey; and a daughter named Gundred; and after died the 8. of the Kalends of Iuly, 1088. the firſt of king William Ruphus, and was buried at Lewis. His wife Gundred dyed in childe-bed at Caſtle-Acre in Norfolke, the 6. of the Kalends of Iune, 1085. three yeares before her husband, and was buried alſo at Lewis. About this Williams creation, and who made him Earle of Surrey, there hath bin ſome queſtion, (which heere I hope to giue ſatisfaction of) M. Camden in his Britannia ſetteth downe, that king William Ruphus made him Earle, and not William Conqueror. And M. Milles, in his Booke (called Somerſets vntruly) pag. 616. followeth him, ſtep by ſtep. M. Camden for his authority, voucheth the ſaid William de Warrens Charter, of the Foundation of the Priory of Lewis, (as he ſaith) in theſe words.

Donaui &c. pro ſalute Domini mei Willielmi Regis qui me in Angliam adduxit, &

pro ſalute Dominæ meæ Matildis Reginæ matris vxoris meæ, & pro ſalute Domini mei Willielmi Regis filij ſui, poſt cuius aduentum in Anglicam terram, hanc Chartam feci, & qui me Comitem Surregiæ fecit, &c.

To this will I adde this, taken out of the Originall booke of Lewis, which I hope will ende this Controuerſie, and cleare the doubt.

Willielmus de Warren primus Comes Surrey, et fundator Eccleſiæ Lewenſis diem ſuum clauſit extremum viij. Kal. Iulij. Anno gratiæ. 1088. et fundationis Eccleſiæ prædictæ xi. et A conqueſtu xxiij. Iſte primo non vocabitur niſi ſolummodo Willielmus de Waren poſtea vero proceſſu temporis a Willielmo Rege et Conqueſtore Angliæ cuius filiam diſponſauit, plurimum Honoratus eſt atq; comes Surrey factus, et appellatus eſt. Iſte iacet in Capello Lewenſis iuxta Dominā Gundradam Comitiſſam ſuam et filiam prædicti Regis Conqueſtoris, &c.

By this it is manifeſtly proued, that William the Conqueror (and not William Ruphus) did create, and make this William de Warren, the firſt Earle of Surrey. Alſo it is to be remembred, that the Counteſſe Gundred died three yeares before her Husband, and two yeares before her Father; and how could ſhe then haue the Title and Name of Counteſſe, vnleſſe her Husband had beene an Earle before ſhe dyed, in William Conquerors time.

A CATALOGVE OF THE Earles and Marqueſſes of Wincheſter, their Armes, Wiues, and Children.

SAherus de Quiney, Lord of Groby in Leiceſterſhire, ſonne of Robert, was created Earle of Wincheſter, the 13. of March, in the eight yeare of the Reigne of King Iohn, & had giuen him by the ſaid Kings Charter, a rent or annuity, iſſuing out of the profits of Hampſhire; and was one of the Noblemen, to whom the reſt of the Kingdome gaue authority, to cauſe the King to abide and ſtand to his Edict, which (with the conſent of the whole body of the Realme) was enacted by a Parliament held at Rowning-Mead, betweene Windeſore and Staynes, in the 17. yeare of the ſaid King Iohn. Hee was alſo the chiefe man the Barons imployed, to bring into the Land Lewis the French kings ſon, to aide the Barons againſt king Iohn.

He did giue and confirme by his Charter, vnto Robert de Quincy his eldeſt Son, to indow Hawis his Wife, ſiſter to the Earle of Cheſter, Buceheberdar, Granteſſet, Bradham, and Herdewich, with their appurtenances, for one hundreth pounds lands; with condition, that if thoſe lands were not worth one hundred pounds the yeare, he ſhould make it vp ſo much of other his owne Lands of Inheritance in England, by the iudgement of lawfull Knights, to wit, men of the Earles of Cheſters and his. And further, the ſaid Saer did giue to his ſaid ſonne Robert and Hawis his Wife, two Knights fees, viz. the fee of Mathew Turpin, of Winterſlawa in Wiltſhire, and the fee of Richard Turuile of Helmeden. Witneſſe to this Deed, Earle Dauid, William Earle Ferrars, &c.

This Saer, married Margaret, ſecond ſiſter and co-heyre of Robert Fitz-Pernell, Earle of Leiceſter and Steward of England, by whom he had iſſue, Robert Lord Quincy, Roger ſecond ſonne, after his Father, Earle of Wincheſter, and another Robert third ſonne, and two daughters; Hawis the eldeſt, was married to Hugh de Vere Earle of Oxford: the ſecond I finde not certainly, neyther her name, or what became of her. EDward Plantagenet, ſonne and heyre of George, Duke of Clarence, and Nephew to King Edward the 4. was after the death of his Father, Earle of Salisbury, and the twentieth Earle of Warwicke, and the laſt heyre male of the Family of Plantagenets. He was a childe of moſt diſaſtrous fortune, as the creature, who had from his Cradle beene nurſed vp in priſon, & his fatall day was haſtened by another mans folly. For a certaine youth of meane parentage, was ſubborned by a knaue Prieſt, to take vpon him, the name and perſon of this Earle Edward; giuing it out, that he had lately eſcaped out of the priſon, in the Tower of London. This bruit cauſed a great tumult amongſt the Commons, who thē were glad to heare, that a branch of the Plantagenets was to be reſtored to the Imperiall Diadem. But the truth was, that Edward Earle of Warwicke, had complotted with Perkyn Werbert (as it was ſaid) to make an eſcape: the which attempt, was then helde no leſſe a crime then high treaſon it ſelfe. But the plot being diſcouered, the ſilly young Nobleman, was bronght to his triall for the ſame, the 21 of Nouember (Iohn Earle of Oxford, being then appointed Lord high Steward of England) and found guilty, and for the ſame, the 28. day of Nouember after after, in the 15. yeare of King Henry the ſeueuth, was beheaded at the Tower-Hill. His body being conuayed to Biſham, was there buried, he being then 24. yeares of age, 1599.
